

Mt. Of Praise Camp Among Nation's Largest

By BOB BENSONHAVER
Herald Staff Writer

One of the largest holiness camp meetings in America will hold its 57th annual meeting at the Mt. of Praise Campgrounds located at 459 E. Ohio St., Aug. 15-24.

With a daily average attendance of 4,500 people and nearly 15,000 on Sundays, the camp is owned and operated by the International Auspices of the Churches of Christ in Christian Union along interdenominational lines, preaching the Wesleyan-Arminian doctrine.

The history of the Circleville Camp can be traced to the founding of the denomination in 1909 by the Rev. J. H. McKibban. The first council of the denomination was held at Jefersonville, Ohio with open air meetings held at Lucasville, Bethel Chapel, New Holland and West Union prior to the Circleville Camp.

In 1917 council was held at West Union in Adams County and a sub-committee was chosen to select a permanent location, either by grant, lease, or purchase, for the annual council and campmeeting of the Churches of Christ in Christian Union. The members of the committee were the Revs. O. L. Ferguson, R. T. Anderson and G. C. McKibban.

It's recorded that while Rev. Ferguson was working on his house, the third house on the left of the campground, he went to a well just across the ground to get a drink of water.

Arriving in an area between the present administration building and dining hall, Ferguson received a divine revelation that told him this is the campground.

Ferguson contacted Everett Keaton and Given McKibban and told them that he found the campground. Knowing the owner of the property, and that it was for sale, Ferguson asked him what was the selling price.

The seven acre tract of land was purchased for $2,500. The committee set a goal of $5000 for the denomination to help purchase the land and the remainder for improvement.

With no money to use for a down payment, the committee was able to obtain credit on Ferguson's position in Circleville.

The lumber was then purchased and work began on the original tabernacle in July 1918, which is the present dining hall.

In earlier camps that Ferguson had been associated with, a fee of 10 cents was charged at the gate, but Ferguson, Keaton and McKibban decided it unfavorable.

The trio then discussed many ideas for a name for the camp and finally decided Mount of Praise.

The camp has grown considerably since its early beginnings. In 1920, council formulated a plan to support a foreign missionary program and in 1927 was able to send Mary Johnson as their first missionary to India.

Foreign missions has continued to have big emphasis on the camp with an outreach around the world. The denomination supports its own missionary department and members of its churches who are associated with affiliate organizations such as World Gospel Missions and Oriental Missionary Society.

After building the original tabernacle, a combination dining hall-dormitory was erected.

The present tabernacle, which seats 3400 comfortably, was built in 1928 with measurements of 100-feet by 144-feet. The original tabernacle was then converted to the present dining hall facility.

The grounds also includes 100 cottages which are owned by members of the denomination and who usually stay for the 10-day event; 10 dormitories which provide housing for men, women, and families; space for 120-130 tents and trailers; a book room; publishing house and in 1953 built an administration building which houses the international headquarters of the denomination.

In 1948, the council actually opened the doors of Circleville Bible College holding classes on the Mt. of Praise Campgrounds.

The camp first began using its own denominational ministers to speak at the camps and after a couple of years added another evangelist.

The camp now involves three evangelists, two from sister holiness denominations and the third from the Churches of Christ in Christian Union.

PUCO Meets With Senators

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Fresh from a bout with consumers, the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio meets today with a special legislative committee investigating the regulation of utility rates.

The PUCO commissioners held a give-and-take discussion Tuesday with a half dozen consumer representatives and received an endorsement for the use of utility companies' original costs as the basis for setting rates.

Rates are currently calculated through a complex Reproduction Cost New (RCN) formula, applying current market prices, less depreciation, to a company's initial investment in land, facilities and equipment.

The formula results in inflationary rate increases, consumer confusion and potential windfall profits for companies, according to commissioners David Sweet and Sally Bloomfield.

Consumer advocates agreed that the RCN formula should be eliminated, but at the same time made it clear they were dissatisfied with PUCO's performance in regulating major gas, electric and telephone companies.

"We don't feel the PUCO has done a good job of regulating the utilities," Patrick Nelson of the Energy Consumers League of Springfield said.

The commission is also faced with an internal division which surfaced once again at the meeting.

Chairman C. Luther Heckman, while not defending the RCN formula, has refrained from joining Sweet and Bloomfield in calling for its repeal.

Heckman said rates should be based on the current true value of utility property, but added: "I don't think any of the rate bases answer all of the problems."

Sweet contended use of original cost figures would save consumers a minimum of $152 million in yearly rate payments.

ROUND TOWN

EVERYTHING is ready for the Pickaway County Cattlemen's Summer Roundup tonight on the Norman Godden Farm in Saltcreek Twp. on the banks of Moccasin Creek.

Pete Everhart and his barbecue crew placed 260 pounds of choice round in a pit about midnight. It will be taken from the pit 6 p.m. and served at 6:30 p.m. today. For the most succulent and tastiest roast beef sandwich ever, head south on Route 56 to South Perry Road which is just past Saltcreek Twp. School.

Continue south on the South Perry Road, across the Tarlton-Adelphi Road, up over Pumpkin Ridge to Moccasin Creek. For those who have not already purchased a ticket, there will be plenty left at the gate to the farm. And in case you get thirsty while there, don't worry

PICCA Gets $12,500 Grant

Congressman William H. Harsha announced today that the community services administration has awarded a $12,500 grant to the Pickaway County Community Action Organization.

The grant, which covers a 12-month period effective Aug. 1, 1975, will be used to assist in growing fresh food for consumption by 5,000 low income persons, counseling on growing, preparing and cooking foods will be provided as well as transportation to and from garden sites.

It will also provide 2,900 to 3,000 pounds of processed beef for consumption by the economically disadvantaged of Pickaway County.

Sam Dettra, PICCA director, said the gardening project will begin in the spring. However, he said PICCA hopes to begin the beef program as soon as possible.

According to Dettra, PICCA plans to purchase 20 head of cattle, feed them to market weight, then sell 15 and process five.

The intent of the program is for the 15 steers sold to cover the costs. In this way the steer feeding program can be made a continual project.

The Joint Select Committee on Energy is expected to discuss rate bases and the fuel adjustment clause with the PUCO commissioners at today's meeting.

PUCO officials believe they were treated with undue harshness by the House-Senate committee in an interim report last month. The report called for tighter controls over fuel adjustments by which utilities pass on increased costs to consumers.

Hoffa Witnesses Reported Likely To 'Take Fifth'

DETROIT (AP) — A federal prosecutor says several witnesses probably will take the Fifth Amendment when he opens a grand jury probe into the disappearance of ex-Teamsters union boss Jimmy Hoffa.

U.S. Atty. Ralph Guy said federal authorities are still exploring all possibilities — including intentional flight — in the disappearance of Hoffa two weeks ago.

"There is no angle we can rule out," he said.

Guy had said he hoped to issue subpoenas as early as today. But Tuesday he said it would take a couple of weeks for his staff to review the results of hundreds of FBI interviews.

Hoffa, 62, was last seen July 30 waiting outside a restaurant in suburban Bloomfield Township. The FBI says it has failed to find any trace of him and does not know if he was kidnapped or killed.

James P. Hoffa, Hoffa's son, repeated on Tuesday his belief that an unnamed man witnessed the abduction of his father — "I've talked to the eyewitness. I've seen him and I believe him."

The FBI says the man's story did not hold up under questioning.

Guy declined to say who would be called to testify before the grand jury. He said some witnesses could be expected to decline to testify on the grounds of self-incrimination.

"It wouldn't surprise me if several people take the Fifth Amendment since some of them have already said publicly that they would," he said.

Federal prosecutors could counter by granting witnesses immunity from prosecution, then forcing them to testify under threat of contempt sentences. But they may be reluctant to grant immunity to some of the reputed organized crime figures likely to be called.

Guy said the grand jury would be used as a tool to learn about Hoffa's fate from uncooperative witnesses, but also could lead to indictments if the case is solved.

Sources said reputed Detroit Mafia kingpin Anthony "Tony Jack" Giacalone would be among those subpoenaed.

Hoffa reportedly had an appointment with Giacalone, former Teamster vice president Anthony "Tony Pro" Provenzano of Union City, N.J., and reputed Detroit mob figure Leonard Schultz at the restaurant the day he vanished. All three denied such a meeting was planned.

Also expected to be called before the grand jury is Charles "Chuckie" O'Brien, Hoffa's former body guard and foster son, who has been identified by sources as a focal point in the investigation.

In Boston Tuesday, O'Brien said he has consulted with attorney F. Lee Bailey and is now willing to take a lie detector test about his actions on the day Hoffa disappeared. But he said he wouldn't take the test until after the grand jury probe is over.

O'Brien's Detroit attorney, James Burdick, said he would probably advise his client against taking a lie detector test.

Burdick again declined to divulge information from O'Brien's 3½-hour interview with the FBI last week but said he expected to be able to do so soon. He said O'Brien was staying mum to avoid interfering with the FBI probe.

Stoutsville Man Charged In Lancaster Murders

Twenty-three-year-old Ronald Eugene Byers, Route 5, Stoutsville, was arrested Tuesday by Pickaway County Sheriff Dwight Radcliff for his involvement in the shotgun killings of three Fairfield County people, last Saturday.

Byers is charged with three counts of murder as an accomplice with Charles Edward Downs, 30, 233 Maude Ave., Lancaster, in the slayings of Steve R. Bailey, 25; his common-law wife, Connie Hodgman and her daughter, Traci, 7, at their home on Beck Road, just south of Lancaster.

Sheriff Radcliff arrested Byers on a warrant from Fairfield County Authorities. Arrested Monday by Fairfield County Sheriff Dan Berry, Downs was arraigned in Lancaster Municipal Court Tuesday and held without bond.

Byers appeared in Lancaster Municipal Court today entering no pleas on all three charges. He is also being held without bond, and has been scheduled to appear in court Friday.

Sheriff Berry was told by an informant that Byers drove Downs to the scene of the triple homicide which occurred at approximately noon Saturday and returned to pick him up.

The bodies, each shotgunned three times in the head and upper body, were discovered around 6 p.m. by the landlord. No one apparently heard the shots in the desolate area two miles south of the Fairfield School for Boys.

The slayings are theorized by Sheriff Berry to be drug related with authorities finding several one ounce bags of marijuana at the residence.

Weather

Hot and humid today with showers and thundershowers likely, mainly in the afternoon and evening. High, low 90s. Warm and humid with a chance of showers or thundershowers tonight and Thursday. Low, low 70s. High Thursday, upper 80s. Probability of precipitation, 60 per cent today, 50 per cent tonight and 70 per cent tomorrow. Temperatures Tuesday were: high, 89; low, 71.

Drugging Of South Viets Blasted

WASHINGTON (AP) — A U.S. Air Force base commander in Thailand was relieved of his position after 13 protesting Vietnamese refugees were drugged and put aboard the last plane for Guam.

Officials said Col. Harrold R. Austin exceeded his authority. Austin was reassigned from command of the key Utapao base to 15th Air Force headquarters at March Air Force Base, Calif.

There was no immediate information on how long after the May 1 drugging incident Austin was removed from his Utapao command by Gen. Louis L. Wilson Jr., Air Force chief in the Pacific.

The Air Force confirmed the drugging episode Tuesday, hours after Rep. Joshua Eilberg, D-Pa., chairman of the House immigration subcommittee, demanded an explanation of what he called "a horrible thing for our country."

But the Air Force denied Eilberg's allegation that the refugees, who wanted to return home, were beaten. "No physical force was used," it said.

The official Air Force explanation strongly suggested the decision to drug the 13 refugees with sodium pentathol, a sedative, and thiorazine, a tranquilizer, was made because of pressure from Thai officials to remove South Vietnamese from their country quickly.

"The Thai officials were adamant that they leave Thailand immediately," the Air Force said.

About 3,000 South Vietnamese flew to Thailand on Vietnamese planes as their country was being overrun by Communist forces.

The Air Force recalled that the United States sent C141 transport planes to carry the Vietnamese refugees from Thailand after the Thais asserted that the Vietnamese could not remain.

"On May 1, when South Vietnam had fallen and the last C141 was leaving for Guam, a group of 13 Vietnamese refused to go," the Air Force statement said.

"They said that when they boarded the aircraft in Vietnam, their Vietnamese flight crews had told them that their destination was the Delta region of Vietnam."

"Near hysteria, they demanded to be returned to Vietnam and threatened suicide if they were not returned immediately."

As the Air Force told the story, a decision by U.S. and Thai officials on the scene to sedate the Vietnamese and take them to Guam was made after hours of fruitless efforts to persuade the 13 "that there were no means to take them back."

It said the drugs were administered by U.S. medical personnel at Utapao and that an Air Force nurse was aboard the flight.

"No ill effects were noted," the Air Force said.

An Air Force spokesman said the 13 are still on Guam awaiting repatriation, but an aide to Eilberg said one is in the United States.

About 2,000 of the more than 130,000 South Vietnamese who left their country in the dying days of the war have asked to go back.

Kidnappers Demand $4.5 Million Ransom

YORKTOWN HEIGHTS, N.Y. (AP) — Kidnapers of whisky heir Samuel Bronfman 2nd reportedly are demanding a $4.5 million ransom and have warned his family that he is buried with a 10-day supply of air and water.

Spokesmen for the 21-year-old Bronfman's family have refused to discuss the amount of ransom demanded or other details of a letter received in the mail Monday. But they said Tuesday they had complied with its instruction.

Sources close to the investigation were quoted as saying the ransom figure was $4.5 million, believed to be the highest in U.S. history.

The New York Daily News quoted sources close to the case as reporting that the letter said young Bronfman, missing since Saturday, was buried somewhere in Westchester County. His parents live in Westchester County, 35 miles north of New York City.

In another bizarre kidnaping, Barbara Jane Mackle was buried alive for days in a wooden coffin in 1968 in Georgia. She was released unharmed.

The Bronfman family spokesman confirmed that a "substantial" sum of money had been collected and that the family was awaiting the next move by the kidnapers. He said the family was negotiating with the kidnapers independently of the FBI and local police.

Edgar M. Bronfman, 46, head of the billion-dollar Seagram Co. Ltd., of Montreal, flew by helicopter from his baronial estate in this Westchester County community Monday to New York City, apparently to fulfill some of the kidnapers' demands. He returned about 7 a.m. Tuesday. A family spokesman early today refused to say whether the senior Bronfman was home or what he was doing.

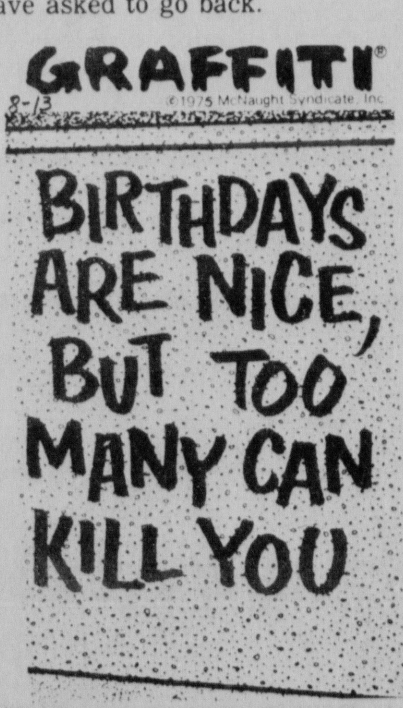

Samuel Bronfman, oldest of the whisky magnate's five children, had dined with his father Friday night in the huge Tudor-style mansion. He left about 11:30 p.m., saying he was going to a party.

Several hours later, he telephoned his father to say he had been abducted by three men while driving to his mother's home in Purchase, N.Y., about 20 miles away.

Samuel's car, a green 1973 BMW sedan, was found parked in his mother's garage, the ignition key in the lock.

Family friends discount the possibility of a hoax, saying Samuel was a smart and likeable person who would not participate in a hoax.

Friends also say the family has held up well, trying to remain calm, and waiting.

Hoosier Lawyer Blasts Utility

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — A hotel representative charged Tuesday that Indiana's fuel adjustment clause is loosely drafted and encourages some utilities to use high-cost fuel to raise consumer rates.

Bob Thompson testified at a Public Service Commission hearing on a motion by the state public counselor to set aside all fuel adjustments.

Thompson is an attorney representing Fort Wayne's Sheraton Hotel. He claimed Indiana & Michigan Electric Co. sells a 50-50 mix of purchased and generated power but applies a fuel adjustment reflecting increased cost of generating its own power to both types of power.

Stoutsville Man Charged In Lancaster Murders

Twenty-three-year-old Ronald Eugene Byers, Route 5, Stoutsville, was arrested Tuesday by Pickaway County Sheriff Dwight Radcliff for his involvement in the shotgun killings of three Fairfield County people, last Saturday.

Byers is charged with three counts of murder as an accomplice with Charles Edward Downs, 30, 233 Maude Ave., Lancaster, in the slayings of Steve R. Bailey, 25; his common-law wife, Connie Hodgman and her daughter, Traci, 7, at their home on Beck Road, just south of Lancaster.

Sheriff Radcliff arrested Byers on a warrant from Fairfield County Authorities. Arrested Monday by Fairfield County Sheriff Dan Berry, Downs was arraigned in Lancaster Municipal Court Tuesday and held without bond.

Byers appeared in Lancaster Municipal Court today entering no pleas on all three charges. He is also being held without bond, and has been scheduled to appear in court Friday.

Sheriff Berry was told by an informant that Byers drove Downs to the scene of the triple homicide which occurred at approximately noon Saturday and returned to pick him up.

The bodies, each shotgunned three times in the head and upper body, were discovered around 6 p.m. by the landlors. No one apparently heard the shots in the desolate area two miles south of the Fairfield School for Boys.

The slayings are theorized by Sheriff Berry to be drug related with authorities finding several one ounce bags of marijuana at the residence.

Weather

Hot and humid today with showers and thundershowers likely, mainly in the afternoon and evening. High, low 90s. Warm and humid with a chance of showers or thundershowers tonight and Thursday. Low, low 70s. High Thursday, upper 80s. Probability of precipitation, 60 per cent today, 50 per cent tonight and 70 per cent tomorrow. Temperatures Tuesday were: high, 89; low, 71.

Judge Bars Man's Protest Of Truck

CARSON CITY, Nev. (AP) — Steve Strickland is in a pickle because a judge won't allow his truck on any Nevada road until he removes lemons and signs painted on the vehicle to protest defects.

Strickland says he needs the truck in his carpentry work, but won't remove the painted lemons or stenciled list of 46 alleged flaws until he gets justice. "As Americans we are so complacent that we trade off a bad vehicle and give up trying to get it fixed. That doesn't help anyone because the manufacturers just keep turning out piles of junk," Strickland said in an interview Tuesday.

Strickland wants his 1973 International truck — his only mode of transportation — replaced with another make of truck, and he wants to overturn the Carson District Court judge's order that bars him from operating the vehicle anywhere in the state.

Judge Frank Gregory ruled last November that Strickland's protest constituted "almost an attempt at extortion" because he vowed to continue his oneman campaign until he got his way, even though the auto dealer's business would be damaged.

"Any consumer should have the right to tell the public of problems with a product, and to let Gregory's order go unchallenged would be unjust," said Strickland, 37, of nearby South Lake Tahoe, Calif.

Strickland has parked his $4,500 truck in front of Al Gasper's auto lot here, displayed it at recreational vehicle shows and ran newspaper advertisements that read, "Before you buy a new truck or pickup, come and see my factory ordered headache."

The dealership has refused to comment on the dispute.

Gregory upheld his order Monday saying the protest was "unjustified, totally unwarranted."

"It's utterly ridiculous that that order should come out of our court system," Strickland said. "If I can get some financial help, I'll carry this on to the state Supreme Court."

Strickland ordered the truck from the factory in 1973. "I saved 2 1/2 years for it. It was the first new vehicle I ever bought," he said.

Since delivery, brakes, carburetors, window glass and other parts had to be changed or fixed because of factory defects, he said.

Strickland said he drove to Chicago a week ago in a futile attempt to see International Harvester president Brooks McCormick "and you know, the truck quit on me on the way home ... It got vapor lock for a while."

Senate Intelligence Committee Demands Documents On Chile

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate intelligence committee, in its most serious breach with the Ford administration, is subpoenaing tapes and documents bearing on covert activities in Chile during the Nixon administration.

But panel members say they still hope to obtain the materials without a legal battle.

The vote to issue a subpoena was taken Tuesday after the White House rejected the committee's requests for the tapes and documents bearing on covert efforts during the Nixon administration to prevent the 1970 election of President Salvador Allende of Chile.

At the same time, committee Chairman Frank Church, D-Idaho, reported the panel has given up for the moment its attempts to persuade former President Richard M. Nixon to testify on his administration's policy concerning assassination of foreign leaders and covert activities by the Central Intelligence Agency.

Church said Nixon's testimony is not essential to the assassination phase of the committee's investigation, but may be sought later when he can be interrogated in a single session about all aspects of the probe.

Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger told the panel Tuesday that assassination plots were never part of Nixon administration policy or practice.

White House Press Secretary Ron Nessen said the documents requested are "in a position where they cannot be released because of an injunction by (U.S. District Judge (William B.) Bryant at the request of the former president."

Church said the White House based its decision on an order sequestering the documents except for "on-going government business." He added: "We think this committee is engaged in legitimate government business."

Access to the papers was refused by White House Counsel Philip W. Buchen. He and Arthur Sampson, head of the General Services Administration, were served the subpoenas because they have physical custody of the Nixon papers.

The subpoena calls for delivery of the papers by Aug. 25. One section calls for the production of all proposals or reports for a military coup in Chile, the bribery of Chilean politicians and the transfer of machine guns, gas masks and gas canisters.

The subpoena also seeks documents concerning "the use of propaganda including media personnel on the payroll of the Central Intelligence Agency and the use of private business interests."

Metzenbaum Eyes Race

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Former U.S. Sen. Howard Metzenbaum has indicated that he is nearing a decision to make his third attempt at a seat in Congress.

"It presently appears that I will be a candidate for the U.S. Senate in 1976," Metzenbaum said Tuesday in discussing the possibility of his appearing on the ballot next year.

He cautioned that he has not formally announced his future intentions, but added "I'm satisfied that the support is there among political leaders, labor leaders and especially among the people in the streets. "If that continues to be the case, I'm prepared to serve."

In 1970, Metzenbaum defeated John Glenn in the Democratic primary, only to be beaten by Sen. Robert A. Taft Jr., R-Ohio, whose term is up in 1976.

Former Gov. John J. Gillian appointed him to the Senate in December 1973 to fill the unexpired term of William Saxbe, who resigned to become U.S. Attorney General, but he was defeated in the 1974 Democratic primary by Glenn.

Local Government Pay Scales Noted

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Local government employees working in noneducational areas averaged more earnings each week in 1974 than those who worked in educational sections, the Ohio Bureau of Employment Services says.

The noneducational workers received $177.31 weekly while those who worked in the educational field received about $162.67.

The averages were compiled by the bureau from reports filed by local government subdivisions covered under Ohio unemployment compensation law.

Elected officials and unclassified employees, other than unclassified employees of hospitals, were not covered by the noneducational local government classification.

The educational category was based upon reports filed by local government school districts, excluding substitute teachers.

Highest pay per week for the noneducational classification was in Lucas County where 5,089 employees averaged $228.30. In Cuyahoga County, the average weekly earnings was $200.85 for 32,001 workers.

Average employment for each month in 1974 in the classification was 125,456 in the 88 counties. Average employment in the educational local government employees category was 213,386 for a month last year.

The highest pay went to the 19,683 employees in Hamilton County who received $197.18 for an average week; the lowest in Defiance County where 748 workers averaged $116.73 each week of 1974.

The bureau also broke down the $335.14 million total payroll for educational state government employees covered under the compensation law for 1974 into the 88 counties.

The average employment by the month was 30,166 with average earnings $213.65.

The figures in the category were based upon reports filed by state educational institutions, excluding student employees of state colleges and universities.

The 1,470 employees at state educational institutions in Cuyahoga County received the highest average weekly pay at $251.16. At the other end of the scale were 37 employees in Montgomery County averaging $109.89 and 11 workers in Miami County who received about $113.82 a week.

In Franklin County with the highest concentration of educational state government employees at 10,407, the average weekly earnings were $208.79.

Balloon Race Set At Ohio State Fair

COLUMBUS — Seven Hounds and one Hare will create a magnificent sight for miles around Columbus during the 1975 Ohio State Fair Seven-Up International Balloon Race, Aug. 27.

The first balloon will lift-off from in front of the grandstand at 9 a.m., according to General Manger John F. Evans.

The eighth annual event, called the Hare and Hound Race, involves a Hare Balloon, commanded by Capt. Phineas Phogg (Dennis Floden), Flint, Mich., ascending first to establish a course and landing pattern which the other balloonists must duplicate precisely. Winners are determined in the order in which Hound balloons land closest to the Hare Balloon.

Other balloonist include: an international entry, the world altitude record holder, the world's largest balloonist and his brother, the balloon race's only eighth year participant, and the first balloonist to cross Lake Michigan.

Judge Bars Man's Protest Of Truck

CARSON CITY, Nev. (AP) — Steve Strickland is in a pickle because a judge won't allow his truck on any Nevada road until he removes lemons and signs painted on the vehicle to protest defects.

Strickland says he needs the truck in his carpentry work, but won't remove the painted lemons or stenciled list of 46 alleged flaws until he gets justice.

"As Americans we are so complacent that we trade off a bad vehicle and give up trying to get it fixed. That doesn't help anyone because the manufacturers just keep turning out piles of junk," Strickland said in an interview Tuesday.

Strickland wants his 1973 International truck — his only mode of transportation — replaced with another make of truck, and he wants to overturn the Carson District Court judge's order that bars him from operating the vehicle anywhere in the state.

Judge Frank Gregory ruled last November that Strickland's protest constituted "almost an attempt at extortion" because he vowed to continue his oneman campaign until he got his way, even though the auto dealer's business would be damaged.

"Any consumer should have the right to tell the public of problems with a product, and to let Gregory's order go unchallenged would be unjust," said Strickland, 37, of nearby South Lake Tahoe, Calif.

Strickland has parked his $4,500 truck in front of Al Gasper's auto lot here, displayed it at recreational vehicle shows and ran newspaper advertisements that read, "Before you buy a new truck or pickup, come and see my factory ordered headache."

The dealership has refused to comment on the dispute.

Gregory upheld his order Monday saying the protest was "unjustified, totally unwarranted."

"It's utterly ridiculous that that order should come out of our court system," Strickland said. "If I can get some financial help, I'll carry this on to the state Supreme Court."

Strickland ordered the truck from the factory in 1973. "I saved 2 1/2 years for it. It was the first new vehicle I ever bought," he said.

Since delivery, brakes, carburetors, window glass and other parts had to be changed or fixed because of factory defects, he said.

Strickland said he drove to Chicago a week ago in a futile attempt to see International Harvester president Brooks McCormick "and you know, the truck quit on me on the way home ... It got vapor lock for a while."

Senate Intelligence Committee Demands Documents On Chile

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate intelligence committee, in its most serious breach with the Ford administration, is subpoenaing tapes and documents bearing on covert activities in Chile during the Nixon administration.

But panel members say they still hope to obtain the materials without a legal battle.

The vote to issue a subpoena was taken Tuesday after the White House rejected the committee's requests for the tapes and documents bearing on covert efforts during the Nixon administration to prevent the 1970 election of President Salvador Allende of Chile.

At the same time, committee Chairman Frank Church, D-Idaho, reported the panel has given up for the moment its attempts to persuade former President Richard M. Nixon to testify on his administration's policy concerning assassination of foreign leaders and covert activities by the Central Intelligence Agency.

Church said Nixon's testimony is not essential to the assassination phase of the committee's investigation, but may be sought later when he can be interrogated in a single session about all aspects of the probe.

Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger told the panel Tuesday that assassination plots were never part of Nixon administration policy or practice.

White House Press Secretary Ron Nessen said the documents requested are "in a position where they cannot be released because of an injunction by (U.S. District Judge (William B.) Bryant at the request of the former president."

Church said the White House based its decision on an order sequestering the documents except for "on-going government business." He added: "We think this committee is engaged in legitimate government business."

Access to the papers was refused by White House Counsel Philip W. Buchen. He and Arthur Sampson, head of the General Services Administration, were served the subpoenas because they have physical custody of the Nixon papers.

The subpoena calls for delivery of the papers by Aug. 25. One section calls for the production of all proposals or reports for a military coup in Chile, the bribery of Chilean politicians and the transfer of machine guns, gas masks and gas canisters.

The subpoena also seeks documents concerning "the use of propaganda including media personnel on the payroll of the Central Intelligence Agency and the use of private business interests."

Metzenbaum Eyes Race

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Former U.S. Sen. Howard Metzenbaum has indicated that he is nearing a decision to make his third attempt at a seat in Congress.

"It presently appears that I will be a candidate for the U.S. Senate in 1976," Metzenbaum said Tuesday in discussing the possibility of his appearing on the ballot next year.

He cautioned that he has not formally announced his future intentions, but added "I'm satisfied that the support is there among political leaders, labor leaders and especially among the people in the streets. 'If that continues to be the case, I'm prepared to serve.'"

In 1970, Metzenbaum defeated John Glenn in the Democratic primary, only to be beaten by Sen. Robert A. Taft Jr., R-Ohio, whose term is up in 1976.

Former Gov. John J. Gillian appointed him to the Senate in December 1973 to fill the unexpired term of William Saxbe, who resigned to become U.S. Attorney General, but he was defeated in the 1974 Democratic primary by Glenn.

Local Government Pay Scales Noted

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Local government employees working in noneducational areas averaged more earnings each week in 1974 than those who worked in educational sections, the Ohio Bureau of Employment Services says.

The noneducational workers received $177.31 weekly while those who worked in the educational field received about $162.67.

The averages were compiled by the bureau from reports filed by local government subdivisions covered under Ohio unemployment compensation law.

Elected officials and unclassified employees, other than unclassified employees of hospitals, were not covered by the noneducational local government classification.

The educational category was based upon reports filed by local government school districts, excluding substitute teachers.

Highest pay per week for the noneducational classification was in Lucas County where 5,089 employees averaged $228.30. In Cuyahoga County, the average weekly earnings was $200.85 for 32,001 workers.

Average employment for each month in 1974 in the classification was 125,456 in the 88 counties. Average employment in the educational local government employees category was 213,386 for a month last year.

The highest pay went to the 19,683 employees in Hamilton County who received $197.18 for an average week; the lowest in Defiance County where 748 workers averaged $116.73 each week of 1974.

The bureau also broke down the $335.14 million total payroll for educational state government employees covered under the compensation law for 1974 into the 88 counties.

The average employment by the month was 30,166 with average earnings $213.65.

The figures in the category were based upon reports filed by state educational institutions, excluding student employees of state colleges and universities.

The 1,470 employees at state educational institutions in Cuyahoga County received the highest average weekly pay at $251.16. At the other end of the scale were 37 employees in Montgomery County averaging $109.89 and 11 workers in Miami County who received about $113.82 a week.

In Franklin County with the highest concentration of educational state government employees at 10,407, the average weekly earnings were $208.79.

Balloon Race Set At Ohio State Fair

COLUMBUS — Seven Hounds and one Hare will create a magnificent sight for miles around Columbus during the 1975 Ohio State Fair Seven-Up International Balloon Race, Aug. 27.

The first balloon will lift-off from in front of the grandstand at 9 a.m., according to General Manager John F. Evans.

The eighth annual event, called the Hare and Hound Race, involves a Hare Balloon, commanded by Capt. Phineas Phogg (Dennis Floden), Flint, Mich., ascending first to establish a course and landing pattern which the other balloonists must duplicate precisely. Winners are determined in the order in which Hound balloons land closest to the Hare Balloon.

Other balloonist include: an international entry, the world altitude record holder, the world's largest balloonist and his brother, the balloon race's only eighth year participant, and the first balloonist to cross Lake Michigan.

Family Should Know About VA Benefits

Veterans of Pickaway County are urged to make certain their families are aware of veterans administration benefits they may be entitled to when death comes.

"Not only should the veteran and his wife discuss the subject of death," said Pickaway County Veterans Service Officer, James P. Shea, "they should make known locations of important family documents, and make sure they are protected from fire, theft and damage." Also, survivors should be briefed on what to do in case of the veteran's death.

The veteran should tell his family about possible survivor's benefits such as VA's dependency and indemnity compensation for service connected death, or non service connected death pensions for widows, or children when there is no widow, or when a widow is ineligible because of excessive income.

Burial benefits for wartime and certain peacetime veterans should not be overlooked. These include a maximum $250 burial allowance, plus a plot allowance not exceeding $150 for veterans buried outside national cemeteries. For veterans who die of service connected disabilities, the lieu of other benefits, there is an $800 burial allowance.

It is equally important, to keep track of GI Insurance policies numbers, claim numbers for use of insurance policies, Social Security numbers and naturalization papers — all important in claiming various survivor benefits.

For those who don't have all the information, and for those who do, the County Service Office offered this final advice to survivors: "Don't forget to turn to the County Service Office when assistance is needed after the death of a veteran. The office stands ready to help in any way possible."

GTE Starts Cable Addition

CIRCLEVILLE — Construction is under way on a major cable addition for growth and service improvement in the Circleville exchange, General Telephone Co. of Ohio announced today.

William D. Anderson, Circleville customer service manager, said the $30,600 expansion will beef up facilities in the eastern portion of the exchange.

Where possible the new cable will be buried. It also will replace some existing facilities for maintenance reasons.

"Projects of this type are the results of needs indicated by our studies and forecasts," Anderson said. "This allows us to plan for growth in a given area in an orderly fashion."

The Circleville exchange serves 12,280 telephones in a 187.4-square-mile area of Pickaway and Fairfield counties.

Akron Native Named DESC Head

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Army Brig. Gen. Richard W. Swenson, a native of Akron, Ohio, presently serving in Europe, has been named commander of the Defense Electronics Supply Center.

The center buys, manages and supplies electronic parts for the armed forces and federal civil agencies. It is staffed with Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine officers.

Swenson will succeed retiring Brig. Gen. Max Etkin as commander.

Swenson, 52, was called to active duty in 1942 as a 19-year-old infantry second lieutenant while a student at Cornell University. He finished college after World War II and rejoined the Army.

later at the Yankeetown Bridge.

They worked with the assistance of Deer Creek State Park and the Army Corp of Engineers.

Mark Hirsman, park naturalist, organized the project. "We are doing this partly to show how careless some fishermen are with their trash," he said.

Scout Master Thomas Finch said the boys are experienced canoeists. They just returned from a 85 mile canoe trip in Michigan.

The troop is made up of 16 scouts and five eagle scouts. Their ages range from 11 to 20.

Their dedication to the litter clean-up was shown when they continued the project in the rain. They had to push the canoes half of the time, because of the lower water level.

Sixteen canoes, life preservers and paddles were supplied free by Trapper John's Canoe Livery Store in Pancoastburg.

The Army Corp of Engineers supplied trash bags and transportation. The litter collection was picked up by the state park.

The boy scout troop members will receive three awards from this project. Deer Creek is presenting a Clean Up Award Patch, the Corp of Engineers will give them a Certificate of Achievement, and a Merit Badge will be presented by the Boy Scouts.

Mixed with beer cans and cigarette packages, the scouts and their sponsors found tire rims, a 55-gallon drum and a chain saw.

Hirsman said they found a black snake that had been needlessly shot to death. According to Hirsman, the snakes are helpful to people because they eat rats and mice.

Thumbs Down To The Communists

The United States has finally awakened to the real world in its dealings in the United Nations.

North and South Vietnam have been blocked for membership by U.S. vetoes in the Security Council.

Outspoken U.S. Ambassador Daniel P. Moynihan cast the vetoes in retaliation for the exclusion of South Korea from membership by the present power blocs in the United Nations.

Moynihan, in a magazine article published before he was named ambassador, advocated a realistic and pragmatic approach to the United Nations. President

Ford has now been shown to be receptive to such actions.

It is perhaps surprising that Moynihan, a long-time liberal and member of the Kennedy circle in the early 1960's, should have made such an about-face.

Whatever the reasons behind his change of attitude may be, it is welcome.

For too long, the United States has treated the U.N. with kid gloves. The so-called Third World nations have been aligning themselves with the Communist bloc and slapping the U.S. in the face.

It is heartening to see the U.S. finally taking a firm stand in the face of illegal actions by the U.N. Assembly. The nations now in control through their voting rights have been exceeding those actions allowed under the U.N. charter.

We hope that such firmness on the part of this nation will continue, especially if Israel should be railroaded from membership.

If that occurs, even harsher action could be taken, including U.S. withdrawal, which would mean an end to the U.N. as a viable body.

While not desiring it, the U.S. should not shrink from any action necessary to either return the U.N. to a responsible course or let it founder.

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

I went to the emergency room of a hospital to be treated for a burn on my hand. It's bad enough to be treated by an intern, but they assigned someone who was not even a doctor to take care of me.

Mrs. D.L.T., Del.

Dear Mrs. T.: Let me immediately remind you of the obvious fallacy in your letter when you say that it is "bad enough to be treated by an intern."

An intern in a hospital is a full-fledged doctor who has earned the degree of M.D. after years of hard work and medical training.

Interns are qualified to engage in private practice, but have chosen to continue advanced studies in a hospital for more thorough training.

All assignments given to them by their superiors can be carried out by them with accuracy and with good judgment. Special problems that arise are solved in consultation with staff members of greater experience.

The demands of modern medicine are so great that certain routine responsibilities that are time-consuming are now being assigned to very well-trained personnel known as "para-medical" assistants. These "para-medics" do not have the M.D. degree, but have undergone rigorous training with very special supervision.

Before they are permitted to treat patients their qualifications are well established. Of course, they, too, perform their duties under the jurisdiction of doctors. Whenever any medical situation arises that specifically demands the attention of a doctor, one is always available.

The value of para-medics has long been known on the battlefield. They have been responsible for emergency treatment that has saved thousands of lives.

The administering of routine injections, the dressing of wounds, the preparation for surgery, and the myriad time-consuming details that would normally take up the busy time of doctors and nurses are now safely and competently handled by the para-medical personnel.

Ongoing courses in medical education allow the para-medics to "specialize" in various fields of medicine. Not only emergency rooms are benefiting from the para-medics, but doctors, too, in their private practices are employing them in an effort to be relieved of specific details. In this way, the doctor can better utilize his time in helping his patients.

Para-medics are a valuable adjunct in modern medicine.

Find Abby Stands Back Of Column

FINDLAY, Ohio (AP) — A 75-year-old Findlay woman has discovered that columnist Abigail Van Buren stands behind advice offered in the "Dear Abby" column.

Phyllis Smith decided to use a Belfast family tracing service that had been recommended in the column in an effort to learn more about her great grandfather, who emigrated to Canada from Ireland in the 1800's.

She said she spent $100 with the firm, which took half a year to respond to her request, then came up with virtually nothing about her family.

"I thought it was an awful foolish thing to do, to send $100 to someone I didn't know," Mrs. Smith said. "Still, if Abby gave the address in her column, I thought it must be on the up and up."

Mrs. Smith said that instead of providing her a list of her family as she had expected, she received a "mish-mash" of "probabilities, possibilities, not impossibilities, said to have been, perhaps and reported to have been, and it took half a year to assemble."

Several weeks ago Mrs. Smith wrote both the tracing service and Miss Van Buren of her displeasure.

A short time later Mrs. Smith received an apology from the columnist, accompanied by a personal check for $100.

"I was horrified to learn that you were 'had' through something I had recommended in my column," wrote Miss Van Buren, who said that when she wrote the column she had assumed the firm offered a legitimate service.

Marion Reports Triple Fatality

MARION, Ohio (AP) — Three persons were killed and two others injured in a head-on collision on Ohio 309 at the east edge of Marion late Monday.

Authorities identified the dead as Donald Tizeman, 55, of Marion; his passenger, Grace Herald, 62, of Marion, and a passenger in the second auto, 23-month-old Kimberly Ferriman, also of Marion.

Leslie Ferriman, 25, the small girl's mother, and another Ferriman child, four-year-old James, were hospitalized following the accident.

Dancing On Her Feet

By JIM BISHOP

Run up the white flag. I surrender. Never again will these feet shuffle to a dance tune on a ballroom floor. I quit. Dancing is not for me.

Please do not remind me that any idiot can dance. This idiot cannot. My beautiful wife's foot is bent. If she wore a bandage on her head and played a fife, she'd look like the Spirit of '76.

I have quit dancing many times, usually immediately after watching the dreamy expression on my partner change into an ouch of anguish. There is nothing romantic about swaying with a woman who limps.

All of which is bewildering because I love music. At the age of six I was playing piano and could riffle through a whole book of Kohler waltzes without consulting the music.

At the age of 18, I enrolled in a dance studio because I thought a knowledge of tap dancing would be a short cut to a career as a movie star.

I learned how to do a time step to a scratchy 78 record. The man in charge told me he wouldn't take any more money from me—I was ready. At home I did the time step for my mother. She said, "When you're through wearing out the leather on your shoes, dry the dishes."

Genius thrives on adversity. I attended house parties where girls said, "Don't you dance?" "Dance?" I said.

"I invented it." The trouble with women is that they take shorter steps.

In later years, my dance partner was my mother. By chance, we would be at the same wedding. Momma was anti-booze, anti-sex and anti-laughing-in-church. However, there was no way she could avoid the bridegroom's toast to the wedding couple, so I would get a watery Manhattan into her.

Twelve minutes later, she would stare at me and say, "Don't you ever dance?" I would lead her out onto the floor. She was about five feet tall, hard to find. After three swings around the floor, she would blow her bronze hair out of her eyes and say, "That's enough."

I enrolled in an Arthur Murray Dance Studio. The place swarmed with instructors who moved off to little rooms where feet are trained.

My teacher was a dark girl, Jean. She had a file folder full of questions, to which I answered, "no, no and no." We adjourned to a mirrored room.

By pressing buttons, Jean could coax jazz, rumba, waltz, tango and so forth from a blank wall. We were joined by a bookkeeper named Helen.

Helen analyzed students' feet. She sat with crossed legs, chart on knee, and make computations and gradings while I yanked Jean around the floor.

Flood Of California Grapes Doesn't Mean Low Wine Cost

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — California will be overflowing with grape juice again this year but it doesn't mean lower wine prices, industry experts say.

They say the price of grapes will probably drop in the near-record harvest, except maybe for the prime varieties that go into the best dry wines. But they say the cost of grapes accounts for so little of the retail price of wine that a decrease cannot make up for inflationary pressures on other factors.

If there's any price cutting, look for it in the wines from France or Italy, they say.

The state Crop and Livestock Reporting Service forecast Monday that this year's grape crop will be 3.85 million tons, including a record 1.35 million tons of wine varieties. It said the total crop should be one per cent larger than 1974, but one per cent under that of 1973.

The record is 3.97 million tons in 1965.

Earlier forecasts had placed this year's crop at 4.22 million tons, with 1.4 million tons of wine varieties.

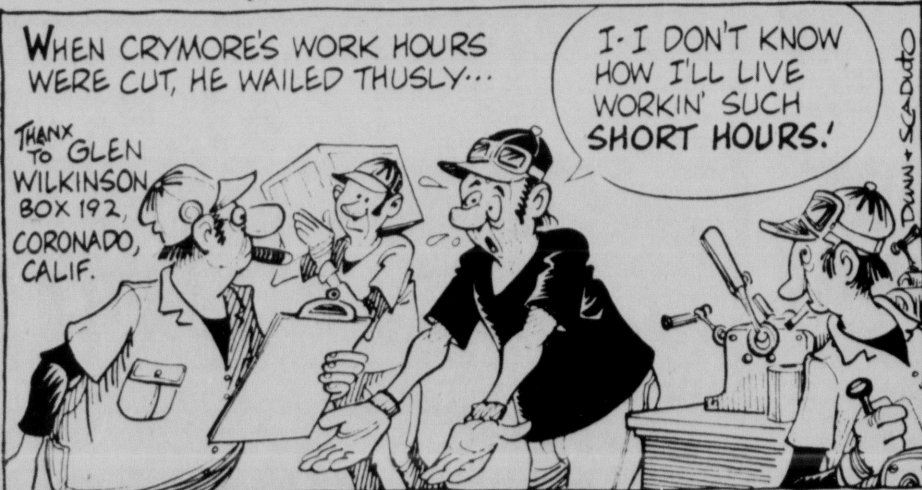

Picking is just beginning. The first white wines from the 1975 crop should reach the stores in December and the reds in early 1976.

"Some people are predicting lower wine prices, but all we can say is that a lower price for grapes could offset other price rises," said Harvey Posert of California's Wine Institute.

Jerry Vaughn of the E. & J. Gallo Brothers Winery said he expects small increases in wine prices — "No big jump, but some. The better varieties might rise a little. But the generics, where the volume is, should be fairly stable."

The Wine Institute figures that grapes account for only about 20 per cent of the retail cost of wine, although this varies by winery and variety. The rest is packaging, transportation, labor, distribution and financing — all going up.

A Page Of Opinion

Thumbs Down To The Communists

The United States has finally awakened to the real world in its dealings in the United Nations.

North and South Vietnam have been blocked for membership by U.S. vetoes in the Security Council.

Outspoken U.S. Ambassador Daniel P. Moynihan cast the vetoes in retaliation for the exclusion of South Korea from membership by the present power blocs in the United Nations.

Moynihan, in a magazine article published before he was named ambassador, advocated a realistic and pragmatic approach to the United Nations. President

Ford has now been shown to be receptive to such actions.

It is perhaps surprising that Moynihan, a long-time liberal and member of the Kennedy circle in the early 1960's, should have made such an about-face.

Whatever the reasons behind his change of attitude may be, it is welcome.

For too long, the United States has treated the U.N. with kid gloves. The so-called Third World nations have been aligning themselves with the Communist bloc and slapping the U.S. in the face.

It is heartening to see the U.S. finally taking a firm stand in the face of illegal actions by the U.N. Assembly. The nations now in control through their voting rights have been exceeding those actions allowed under the U.N. charter.

We hope that such firmness on the part of this nation will continue, especially if Israel should be railroaded from membership.

If that occurs, even harsher action could be taken, including U.S. withdrawal, which would mean an end to the U.N. as a viable body.

While not desiring it, the U.S. should not shrink from any action necessary to either return the U.N. to a responsible course or let it founder.

friend, the box step broken into three beats with a side-saddle wiggle. We tried a samba. This was followed by jitterbug. The calves of my legs ached.

Every fifth hour, a supervisor showed up to dance with me. This was to ascertain whether I was learning anything or just playing potsy with the girls.

I did this for 25 hours of instruction. Jean got two weeks off for medical disability. Helen danced with me and kept the score. The supervisor began to wonder if I was going to be Arthur Murray's first failure.

My musical instincts are good. I know because when I got an electric guitar for Gayle, her first concert nearly killed me and our dog. That kid would be tone-deaf playing a harp in heaven.

Kelly fancies herself a good dancer. Now and then she tells me about the guys she used to date because they were divine dancers. She still thinks that Fred Astaire was her other possibility.

So we were at this wedding reception, laughing it up. This time I said to her, "Wanna dance?" She smiled "My, my," she said. "This is a rare day, Mr. B."

I led her onto a floor about the size of a Saltine. Thirty-two bars later, I carried her off. I bent bones in her feet she didn't know she had. I surrender. I'll sit this one out...

Business World

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — These are difficult times in which to be doing business. The guidelines seem to have become fuzzed. Some of the old institutions seem unable to adapt to the new requirements.

New regulations are proposed or imposed almost daily, it seems, and while that means jobs for the lawyers it means uncertainty for those who run businesses. And uncertainty stops planning dead in its tracks.

Pension fund administrators are wary of making investments because of the personal legal liabilities written into the Employment Retirement Income Act of 1974. Wariness results in hesitancy rather than aggressiveness.

Nobody seems to have suggested it so far, but there is some chance that disgruntled stockholders in some of the big New York City banks might demand to know why money was lent to the city at less than prime rate.

Isn't the prime supposed to go only to the most credit-worthy customers? Why, therefore, they might ask, was subprime offered to a municipality whose credit standing is suspect?

A related observation is made by the Securities and Exchange Commission, the government watchdog over investment vehicles. It is considering action, never attempted before, against offending municipalities.

A.A. Sommer Jr., an SEC commissioner, told a meeting of the American Bar Association in Montreal last weekend that his group might act against cities that sell securities without disclosing their full financial condition.

Sommer's reference was made in regard to New York City having sold bonds while failing to disclose that it had huge "hidden" deficits, but his remarks clearly were intended to apply to other municipalities too.

The plight of the cities put the big institutions in a dilemma. They have a vested interest in keeping the cities from collapsing, but they have a responsibility to their investors too. And there are no guidelines to help.

In the board room of corporations there are insecurities too. Once these directors' meetings were almost social affairs, but now the individual directors must beware of suits should they not protect the stockholder's interests.

Down on Wall Street there are problems too, one of them being the cosmic transition to a great central marketplace, a change that has been evolving slowly and with considerable resistance.

Identities are being lost there. The government wants more cooperation among the various exchanges, which heretofore have traded their own private lists of stocks. Wouldn't it be better if there were national markets instead?

That's what they're supposed to be moving toward, but there are some problems along the way. The government also wants to break monopolistic pricing and pit brokers against each other in order to lower commissions.

This has resulted in the demise of some firms which simply could not compete. Tradition, which seemed to nourish the inefficient year after year, is being tossed out.

Some of the nation's best known corporations, meanwhile, have involved themselves in a game they apparently don't play very well, which is politics, secretly and deviously shifting investor assets to the coffers of candidates.

Overseas, they have lost their way perhaps more scandalously, some of them paying enormous sums to corrupt politicians and then arguing that this was the way things were done and they couldn't challenge the system.

This contention is now the subject of debate in professional and business journals. Many businessmen claim a bribe should never be resorted to; others maintain that cash payments shouldn't even be called bribes.

Some businessmen claim that they are forced today to perform in a fish-bowl and that somebody — the government or consumer groups or special interests — is always swishing the water about.

But it hardly can be ignored that business too seems to be roiling the waters.

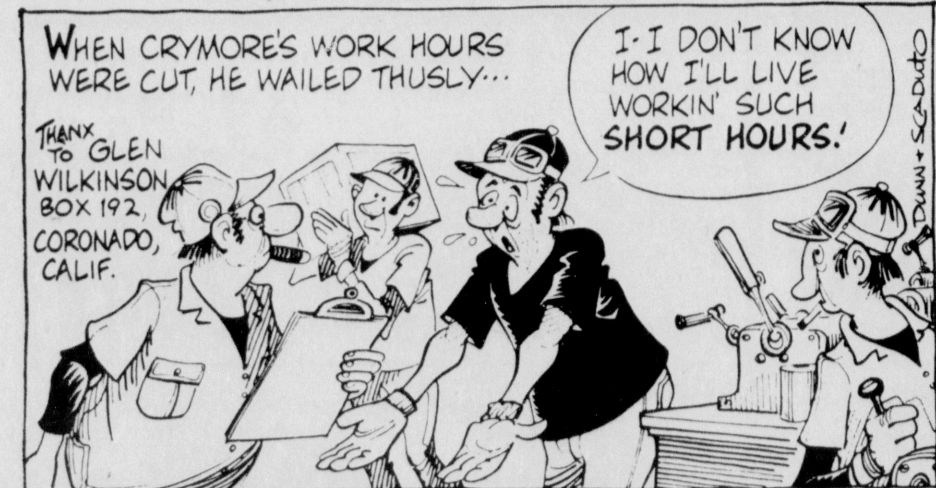

Edgar Buchanan Leaving Hospital

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Character actor Edgar Buchanan will be released Wednesday from Hollywood West Hospital where he is recovering from surgery to relieve pressure on his brain, the actor's wife says.

Mrs. Mildred Buchanan said that although her husband is "doing remarkably well" he still would require around the clock nurses' attention when he gets home. Buchanan was operated on July 31.

Buchanan has appeared in more than 100 movie and television roles. His best remembered recent one was in the TV series, "Petticoat Junction."

Master Mitchel Ebert celebrated his sixth birthday with a party in the village park on Saturday afternoon. Hostesses were his mother, Mrs. Connie Hart and his "other" mother, Kay Ebert.

Joining Mitch in the fun and games were his brother Joey, Rodney, Micky and Melissa Hart; Jeff and Lori Shaw; Shane, Shannon and Marty Karshner; Mark and Jennia Shively; Kevin and Lori Garrett; Phillip and Bryon Rife; Scott Ebert; Tonyo Jo Ebert; Robby Shaw; Matthew Leach and Karen Brokaw.

The grownups present were the hostesses, Mrs. Rollie Hart, Mrs. Tom Karshner, Mrs. Jim Shaw, Mrs. James Leach, Mrs. Patty Ebert, Mrs. Chuck Ebert and Grandma Celesta.

You don't have to be a real grandmother to be called Grandma and one of the best ways is to be adopted by two such nice little boys and Mitch and Joey.

Refreshments of ice cream, cake and Kool Aid were served.

Mitchel received many nice gifts but of course the best one of all was the bicycle from his mother, Connie. The grand finale to the party was when his mother, who vowed she couldn't ride it, took a few laps around the park on the bike and did a very good job of staying top side.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Bradney of near Amanda celebrated their 10th wedding anniversary on Sunday with a picnic at the DuPont Club House. Joining them in the celebration were their two daughters Michelle and Beth; Mr. and Mrs. George Neal and family, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Bidwell and grandson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dumm, Norman Bidwell, and Earl Eveland all of near Amanda, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Boggs and family, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Neal of Circleville; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Bell and daughter of Canal Winchester, Mrs. Betty Schoeder of Columbus; Mrs. Helen Harmon, Carolyn Hartley and Vern Pritchard of Laurelville.

The Dille reunion was held on Sunday at the Laurelville Riding Club.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Orlando J. Martin, Linda, Kathy, Dena, Tami and Terry; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Steel; Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Davis and daughters; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hart and John; Mr. and Mrs. Wingett Dillie and Merrill; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thompson, Jill and Donald; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Thompson; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dillie, and Mike; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Winnett and Jamie; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dillie; Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Hart; Leslie Dillie; Lloyd Dillie; Mr. and Mrs. Francis Hart, Teddy, Grace, Carolyn and Ronnie; Sharon Thomas; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spicer, Kathy and Marrlon; Donald, Royce, Robert and Gene Dillie, all of the Laurelville area;

Cloyd Steel of Chillicothe; Merrill Imler of Route 1, Kingston; The Rev. and Mrs. Paul Mercer of Vinton County; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Gudorf and family and Bill Gudorf and Mrs. Bertha (Dille) Craig all of Wilmington.

The women of the Church of God held their missionary meeting at the church on last Thursday evening with the president, Mrs. Lynn Summers, presiding. The roll call was answered by naming something you would take back to school.

The Missionary Prayer Retreat will be Aug. 28 at Chillicothe park. At the next meeting there will be a 25 cent grab bag sale and a cake auction.

A church supper and white elephant sale was discussed. Special prayer requests were given and Mrs. Clayton Holbrook offered prayer. Mrs. Donald Hardman had the devotions and read from the third chapter of James.

Mrs. Robert Reid gave the closing prayer. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Holbrook and Mrs. James Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mettler of W. Palm Beach, Fla. are parents of a son, Christopher John, born June 16. Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Mettler of Laurelville are the paternal grandparents.

Mrs. Marge Baker of Route 1, Laurelville, returned home Friday after spending three weeks in Mt. Carmel Medical Center in Columbus where she underwent major surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Kempton returned recently from a two-week vacation in the south. One week was spent at the N.C.H.A. "campvention" in Moultrie, Ga. One week they enjoyed visiting in and near Birmingham, Ala., Cherokee, N.C., Gatlenburg and the Smokey Mountains.

Mack Shaw of South Bloomingville, has returned home after a two-week stay in University Hospital in Columbus. On July 29, he underwent surgery to have a pace maker placed in his heart. He was able to return home on Aug. 5.

Tom Smith, who has been in the hospital for five weeks, first in Fairfield-Lancaster and later in Riverside, returned home last week wearing an arm and a body cast. We hope this will teach Tom to keep both feet firmly on the ground from now on.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Kempton and Orville Kempton visited their mother, Mrs. Lura Kempton in University Hospital on Friday evening. Her condition was not as good as it had been last week.

Valerie ad Tara Fausnaugh of Shoemaker Road, Circleville, spent last week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Settler.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Whisler spent a week recently in Muskegon, Mich., where they were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reid.

Clean Hands Best Bet In Meal Safety

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Clean hands can be the most important ingredient to a safely cooked meal, according to John Bindeman, in charge of restaurant and grocery inspections in Montgomery County.

"The biggest outbreak of sickness is caused by people who don't wash their hand properly," said Bindeman. "The number one rule for home or anyplace where food is served: keep hands clean at all times."

There should also be a general cleanliness of floors, walls and ceilings where the food is cooked, he said.

Tummy aches, diarrhea or what was thought to have been a 24-hour flu bug, are often caused by a cook who failed the clean kitchen test, he said.

There should be a thorough washing and sanitizing of dishes, he said, noting that air drying is preferable to drying with a towel.

Meat slicers and cutting boards should be thoroughly cleaned between slicing of raw pork and beef, he said. Pork often harbors the trichinosis worm which is killed in cooking.

But beef, which is often served rare, could be contaminated with the worm. Since it is not cooked thoroughly, Bindeman said the worm can invade the human body and cause severe problems.

Raw chicken is sometimes contaminated with the salmonella organism, which also is killed by cooking. But it can contaminate other things through an uncleaned cutting board, he said.

Master Mitchel Ebert celebrated his sixth birthday with a party in the village park on Saturday afternoon. Hostesses were his mother, Mrs. Connie Hart and his "other" mother, Kay Ebert.

Joining Mitch in the fun and games were his brother Joey, Rodney, Micky and Melissa Hart; Jeff and Lori Shaw; Shane, Shannon and Marty Karshner; Mark and Jennia Shively; Kevin and Lori Garrett; Phillip and Bryon Rife; Scott Ebert; Tonyo Jo Ebert; Robby Shaw; Matthew Leach and Karen Brokaw.

The grownups present were the hostesses, Mrs. Rolie Hart, Mrs. Tom Karshner, Mrs. Jim Shaw, Mrs. James Leach, Mrs. Patty Ebert, Mrs. Chuck Ebert and Grandma Celesta.

You don't have to be a real grandmother to be called Grandma and one of the best ways is to be adopted by two such nice little boys and Mitch and Joey.

Refreshments of ice cream, cake and Kool Aid were served.

Mitchel received many nice gifts but of course the best one of all was the bicycle from his mother, Connie. The grand finale to the party was when his mother, who vowed she couldn't ride it, took a few laps around the park on the bike and did a very good job of staying top side.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Bradney of near Amanda celebrated their 10th wedding anniversary on Sunday with a picnic at the DuPont Club House. Joining them in the celebration were their two daughters Michelle and Beth; Mr. and Mrs. George Neal and family, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Bidwell and grandson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dumm, Norman Bidwell, and Earl Eveland all of near Amanda, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Boggs and family, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Neal of Circleville; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Bell and daughter of Canal Winchester, Mrs. Betty Schoeder of Columbus; Mrs. Helen Harmon, Carolyn Hartley and Vern Pritchard of Laurelville.

The Dille reunion was held on Sunday at the Laurelville Riding Club.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Orlando J. Martin, Linda, Kathy, Dena, Tami and Terry; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Steel; Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Davis and daughters; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hart and John; Mr. and Mrs. Wingett Dillie and Merrill; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thompson, Jill and Donald; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Thompson; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dillie, and Mike; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Winnett and Jamie; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dillie; Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Hart; Leslie Dillie; Lloyd Dillie; Mr. and Mrs. Francis Hart, Teddy, Grace, Carolyn and Ronnie; Sharon Thomas; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spicer, Kathy and Marillon; Donald, Royce, Robert and Gene Dillie, all of the Laurelville area;

Cloyd Steel of Chillicothe; Merrill Imler of Route 1, Kingston; The Rev. and Mrs. Paul Mercer of Vinton County; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Gudorf and family and Bill Gudorf and Mrs. Bertha (Dille) Craig all of Wilmington.

The women of the Church of God held their missionary meeting at the church on last Thursday evening with the president, Mrs. Lynn Summers, presiding. The roll call was answered by naming something you would take back to school.

The Missionary Prayer Retreat will be Aug. 28 at Chillicothe park. At the next meeting there will be a 25 cent grab bag sale and a cake auction.

A church supper and white elephant sale was discussed. Special prayer requests were given and Mrs. Clayton Holbrook offered prayer. Mrs. Donald Hardman had the devotions and read from the third chapter of James.

Mrs. Robert Reid gave the closing prayer. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Holbrook and Mrs. James Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mettler of W. Palm Beach, Fla. are parents of a son, Christopher John, born June 16. Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Mettler of Laurelville are the paternal grandparents.

Mrs. Marge Baker of Route 1, Laurelville, returned home Friday after spending three weeks in Mt. Carmel Medical Center in Columbus where she underwent major surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Kempton returned recently from a two-week vacation in the south. One week was spent at the N.C.H.A. "campvention" in Moultrie, Ga. One week they enjoyed visiting in and near Birmingham, Ala., Cherokee, N.C., Gattlenburg and the Smokey Mountains.

Mack Shaw of South Bloomingville, has returned home after a two-week stay in University Hospital in Columbus. On July 29, he underwent surgery to have a pace maker placed in his heart. He was able to return home on Aug. 5.

Tom Smith, who has been in the hospital for five weeks, first in Fairfield-Lancaster and later in Riverside, returned home last week wearing an arm and a body cast. We hope this will teach Tom to keep both feet firmly on the ground from now on.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Kempton and Orville Kempton visited their mother, Mrs. Lura Kempton in University Hospital on Friday evening. Her condition was not as good as it had been last week.

Valerie ad Tara Fausnaugh of Shoemaker Road, Circleville, spent last week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Settler.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Whisler spent a week recently in Muskegon, Mich., where they were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reid.

MRS. RICHARD L. BENDURE

Moss-Bendure Wedding Vows Repeated In Kingston Church

Mt. Pleasant Church of Kingston was the setting for the wedding of Miss Donna Jean Moss, Route 1, Kingston and Mr. Richard L. Bendure, Columbus.

The Rev. W. D. Wardwell officiated the double ring service for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Moss, Route 1, Kingston, and the son of Mrs. Madelyn Bendure, Buckeye Lake and the late Mr. William Bendure, 3:30 p.m., July 27.

A program of nuptial selections preceding the ceremony was played by Mrs. Carl Heststein, organist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and mother. For her wedding she selected a full length gown of ivory cotton with lace sleeves. Daisy lace appliques covered a headband holding her veil of illusion and she carried a bouquet of miniature carnations, mums and daisies accented with baby's breath and tied with ribbon forming streamers. The bride also carried two white linen handkerchiefs, gifts of her nieces and the matron of honor.

Mrs. Gretchen Price of Columbus was matron of honor in a floor length gown of light blue jersey print with a halter bodice. Her bouquet was of carnations, chrysanthemums and spider mums in blue and white.

Flower girls were the Misses Michele and Melissa McGinnis, Route 1, Circleville. They wore matching strawberry print floor length dresses and carried baskets of rose petals.

Mr. Roy Waddle of Columbus, served his friend as best man.

The bride's mother was attired in a blue and white A-line dress with a matching jacket. Mrs. Bendure wore a jersey print dress with matching jacket. Corsages for both mothers were of daisies, carnations and roses.

A reception and buffet dinner followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. The two tiered cake was decorated with yellow roses and topped with a Cana Cross, a gift from the matron of honor. Hostess was Mrs. Michael McGinnis, sister of the bride.

The new Mrs. Bendure is attending Capital University in Columbus. Mr. Bendure is employed by Waddle Bros. Construction of Columbus. The couple will reside on South James Road, Columbus.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were from Columbus, Buckeye Lake and Chillicothe. Special guests were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Lane of Circleville, and Mrs. Mary E. Moss of Chillicothe.

65th ANNIVERSARY—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Peters Sr., Route 2, Ashville celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary Sunday. Mr. Peters and the former Miss Rose Davis, were married August 10, 1910 by the Rev. Jamison in the Methodist Parsonage, Circleville. They are the parents of 11 children, nine daughters and two sons: Mrs. W. L. (Charlotte) Cozad, deceased; Mrs. Forrest (Marvene) Rinehart, Mrs. Loring (Gladys) Valentine, Mrs. Glen (Zora) Weiler, Mrs. J. M. (Augusta) Musselman and Mrs. Richard (Roma) Conrad, Circleville; Mrs. Tom (Velma) Purcell, Ralph Peters Jr., Mrs. Marvin (Ann) Richards, Mrs. Donald (Ethel) Thompson and Robert M. Peters, Ashville. There are 32 grandchildren, 27 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

Future Events Discussed By Jaycee Wives

Plans were made for events to begin the active club year of Circleville Jaycee Wives during its recent organizational meeting in the Jaycee clubroom, W. Main St.

Mrs. Terry Conley conducted the business meeting and announced committees for four new projects including making hanging baskets to be sold during Pumpkin Show.

Mrs. Conley announced a joint dinner meeting with the Jaycees at 6:30 p.m., Sept. 13, at Steele's Restaurant, and a horse show on Sept. 7, at Pickaway County Fairgrounds.

The next regular meeting will be Sept. 3 at the home of Mrs. Keith Staffin, 1745 Sioux Drive.

Officers Elected By Auxiliary

Election of officers was conducted during the recent meeting of Ladies Auxiliary of Pickaway Twp. Fire Department at the firehouse.

Elected were: Mrs. Gene Kerns, president; Mrs. Gary Groce, first vice-president; Mrs. Mary Wilhelm, second vice-president; Mrs. Kenneth Graf, secretary and Mrs. Luther Speakman, treasurer.

Mrs. Kerns appointed Mrs. Warren Spangler assistant to the secretary and treasurer; Mrs. Robert Bell, chaplain; Mrs. James Weaver, sergeant-at-arms and Mrs. Ralph Hunt, assistant.

Devotions were by Mrs. Robert Bell and the business meeting conducted by Mrs. Kerns. Members will sell coupons for portraits to be taken 1-6 p.m., Sept. 6-7 at the firehouse. A get well card was signed to be sent to Orla Hockman, honorary fireman. Members agreed to enter a float at the Pumpkin Show parades.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by Mrs. Robert Bell.

Japanese Face Tax On Uranium

OAK RIDGE, Tenn. (AP) — Ten electric utilities in Japan, where the atomic bomb was first used, have been assessed taxes on nuclear fuel they have stored here, where the bomb was developed.

The 10 utilities have been assessed $9.2 million in personal property taxes on $320 million in nuclear power plant fuel. One of the utilities is in Hiroshima, where the first atomic bomb was dropped in 1945 in World War II.

The 10 utilities are contesting the assessment, claiming that uranium—the basic raw material of nuclear energy—is not taxable.

Personals

Dr. and Mrs. Daniel Cowan and family were guests of the Saul Rogols' family at 545 Northridge Road, recently.

Dr. Cowan, who is chief of pathology at the University of Virginia School of Medicine in Norfolk, is known worldwide as an expert in diseases and pathology of the whale. In the early 60's Dr. Cowan was ranking Naval Officer of Byrd Station, Antarctica. He has traversed the South Pole twice, once by land, once by air. His studies of whales have led him to the frozen waters of not only the South Pole but of Greenland and Iceland.

Bob Evans Farms Reports Earnings

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Bob Evans Farms Inc., the sausage and restaurant company, reported net income for the three months ending July 25 at $597,634, or 73 cents share.

It said net sales of $12,768,364 for the period were 29 per cent higher than the same period last year but net income for the three months in 1974 was $660,815, or 80 cents per share.

The company said while the increase in sales resulted from additional restaurants while the decrease in income was the result of higher raw material costs.

COOKING IS FUN

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
AP Food Editor

PATIO LUNCH

Tomato Salad, Sesame Rolls, Iced Tea, Fresh Peach Pie.

TOMATO SALAD

The easy way to "stuff" tomatoes.
½ cup mayonnaise
1 teaspoon prepared mustard
1 teaspoon minced onion
½ teaspoon salt
White pepper to taste
6 hard-cooked eggs, chopped
¾ cup finely diced cooked ham
½ cup finely diced celery
4 medium-large tomatoes
Salad greens

Mix together all the ingredients except the tomatoes and salad greens. Remove stem ends from tomatoes; cut each tomato almost to the bottom to make 6 wedges that are still attached; slightly spread wedges; pile filling in centers; arrange on lettuce. Makes 4 large servings.

SATURDAY REFRESHER

Cheese Nut Roll, Crackers, Bacon Bites, Sangria.

BACON BITES

The bacon encloses fresh mushrooms and chicken livers.

3 tablespoons domestic soy sauce
Clove garlic, minced
½ teaspoon ground ginger
¼ teaspoon curry powder
½ pound small fresh mushrooms, rinsed and patted dry
¼ pound chicken livers, halved with center stringy portion removed ½ pound bacon

Mix together the soy sauce, garlic, ginger and curry powder; ginger and curry powder; mix in mushrooms and livers. Cover tightly and let marinate in the refrigerator for about 1 hour. Remove mushrooms and livers, reserving marinade. Cut each bacon slice in half crosswise; wrap each half around a mushroom or piece of liver; secure with toothpicks. Brush bacon with reserved marinade. Broil, turning once and brushing with marinade, until bacon is crisp. Makes about 20.

MRS. RICHARD L. BENDURE

Moss-Bendure Wedding Vows Repeated In Kingston Church

Mt. Pleasant Church of Kingston was the setting for the wedding of Miss Donna Jean Moss, Route 1, Kingston and Mr. Richard L. Bendure, Columbus.

The Rev. W. D. Wardwell officiated the double ring service for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Moss, Route 1, Kingston, and the son of Mrs. Madelyn Bendure, Buckeye Lake and the late Mr. William Bendure, 3:30 p.m., July 27.

A program of nuptial selections preceding the ceremony was played by Mrs. Carl Hearnstein, organist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and mother. For her wedding she selected a full length gown of ivory cotton with lace sleeves. Daisy lace appliques covered a headband holding her veil of illusion and she carried a bouquet of miniature carnations, mums and daisies accented with baby's breath and tied with ribbon forming streamers. The bride also carried two white linen handkerchiefs, gifts of her nieces and the matron of honor.

Mrs. Gretchen Price of Columbus was matron of honor in a floor length gown of light blue jersey print with a halter bodice. Her bouquet was of carnations, chrysanthemums and spider mums in blue and white.

Flower girls were the Misses Michele and Melissa McGinnis, Route 1, Circleville. They wore matching strawberry print floor length dresses and carried baskets of rose petals.

Mr. Roy Waddle of Columbus, served his friend as best man.

The bride's mother was attired in a blue and white A-line dress with a matching jacket. Mrs. Bendure wore a jersey print dress with matching jacket. Corsages for both mothers were of daisies, carnations and roses.

A reception and buffet dinner followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. The two tiered cake was decorated with yellow roses and topped with a Cana Cross, a gift from the matron of honor. Hostess was Mrs. Michael McGinnis, sister of the bride.

The new Mrs. Bendure is attending Capital University in Columbus. Mr. Bendure is employed by Waddle Bros. Construction of Columbus. The couple will reside on South James Road, Columbus.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were from Columbus, Buckeye Lake and Chillicothe. Special guests were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Lane of Circleville, and Mrs. Mary E. Moss of Chillicothe.

65th ANNIVERSARY—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Peters Sr., Route 2, Ashville celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary Sunday. Mr. Peters and the former Miss Rose Davis, were married August 10, 1910 by the Rev. Jamison in the Methodist Parsonage, Circleville. They are the parents of 11 children, nine daughters and two sons: Mrs. W. L. (Charlotte) Cozad, deceased; Mrs. Forrest (Marvene) Rinehart, Mrs. Loring (Gladys) Valentine, Mrs. Glen (Zora) Weiler, Mrs. J. M. (Augusta) Musselman and Mrs. Richard (Roma) Conrad, Circleville; Mrs. Tom (Velma) Purcell, Ralph Peters Jr., Mrs. Marvin (Ann) Richards, Mrs. Donald (Ethel) Thompson and Robert M. Peters, Ashville. There are 32 grandchildren, 27 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

Future Events Discussed By Jaycee Wives

Plans were made for events to begin the active club year of Circleville Jaycee Wives during its recent organizational meeting in the Jaycee clubroom, W. Main St.

Mrs. Terry Conley conducted the business meeting and announced committees for four new projects including making hanging baskets to be sold during Pumpkin Show.

Mrs. Conley announced a joint dinner meeting with the Jaycees at 6:30 p.m., Sept. 13, at Steele's Restaurant, and a horse show on Sept. 7, at Pickaway County Fairgrounds.

The next regular meeting will be Sept. 3 at the home of Mrs. Keith Staffin, 1745 Sioux Drive.

Officers Elected By Auxiliary

Election of officers was conducted during the recent meeting of Ladies Auxiliary of Pickaway Twp. Fire Department at the firehouse.

Elected were: Mrs. Gene Kerns, president; Mrs. Gary Groce, first vice-president; Mrs. Mary Wilhelm, second vice-president; Mrs. Kenneth Graf, secretary and Mrs. Luther Speakman, treasurer.

Mrs. Kerns appointed Mrs. Warren Spangler assistant to the secretary and treasurer; Mrs. Robert Bell, chaplain; Mrs. James Weaver, sergeant-at-arms and Mrs. Ralph Hunt, assistant.

Devotions were by Mrs. Robert Bell and the business meeting conducted by Mrs. Kerns. Members will sell coupons for portraits to be taken 1-6 p.m., Sept. 6-7 at the firehouse. A get well card was signed to be sent to Orla Hockman, honorary fireman. Members agreed to enter a float at the Pumpkin Show parades.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by Mrs. Robert Bell.

Japanese Face Tax On Uranium

OAK RIDGE, Tenn. (AP) — Ten electric utilities in Japan, where the atomic bomb was first used, have been assessed taxes on nuclear fuel they have stored here, where the bomb was developed.

The 10 utilities have been assessed $9.2 million in personal property taxes on $320 million in nuclear power plant fuel. One of the utilities is in Hiroshima, where the first atomic bomb was dropped in 1945 in World War II.

The 10 utilities are contesting the assessment, claiming that uranium—the basic raw material of nuclear energy—is not taxable.

Personals

Dr. and Mrs. Daniel Cowan and family were guests of the Saul Rogols' family at 545 Northridge Road, recently.

Dr. Cowan, who is chief of pathology at the University of Virginia School of Medicine in Norfolk, is known worldwide as an expert in diseases and pathology of the whale. In the early 60's Dr. Cowan was ranking Naval Officer of Byrd Station, Antarctica. He has traversed the South Pole twice, once by land, once by air. His studies of whales have led him to the frozen waters of not only the South Pole but of Greenland and Iceland.

Bob Evans Farms Reports Earnings

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Bob Evans Farms Inc., the sausage and restaurant company, reported net income for the three months ending July 25 at $597,634, or 73 cents share.

It said net sales of $12,768,364 for the period were 29 per cent higher than the same period last year but net income for the three months in 1974 was $660,815, or 80 cents per share.

The company said while the increase in sales resulted from additional restaurants while the decrease in income was the result of higher raw material costs.

COOKING IS FUN

By CECILY BROWNSTONE AP Food Editor

PATIO LUNCH

Tomato Salad, Sesame Rolls, Iced Tea, Fresh Peach Pie.

TOMATO SALAD

The easy way to "stuff" tomatoes.

1/2 cup mayonnaise
1 teaspoon prepared mustard
1 teaspoon minced onion
1/2 teaspoon salt
White pepper to taste
6 hard-cooked eggs, chopped
3/4 cup finely diced cooked ham
1/2 cup finely diced celery
4 medium-large tomatoes
Salad greens

Mix together all the ingredients except the tomatoes and salad greens. Remove stem ends from tomatoes; cut each tomato almost to the bottom to make 6 wedges that are still attached; slightly spread wedges; pile filling in centers; arrange on lettuce. Makes 4 large servings.

SATURDAY REFRESHER

Cheese Nut Roll, Crackers, Bacon Bites, Sangria.

BACON BITES

The bacon encloses fresh mushrooms and chicken livers.

3 tablespoons domestic soy sauce
Clove garlic, minced
1/2 teaspoon ground ginger
1/4 teaspoon curry powder
1/2 pound small fresh mushrooms, rinsed and patted dry
3/4 pound chicken livers, halved with center stringy portion removed
1/2 pound bacon

Mix together the soy sauce, garlic, ginger and curry powder; ginger and curry powder; mix in mushrooms and livers. Cover tightly and let marinate in the refrigerator for about 1 hour. Remove mushrooms and livers, reserving marinade. Cut each bacon slice in half crosswise; wrap each half around a mushroom or piece of liver; secure with toothpicks. Brush bacon with reserved marinade. Broil, turning once and brushing with marinade, until bacon is crisp. Makes about 20.

Little Miami River To Be All Scenic?

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—Conservationist efforts to protect the entire 105 miles of the Little Miami River for outdoor recreation have received a boost from a federal official.

Protection would mean the stream would become part of the federal "Scenic Rivers" program between Clifton, Ohio and the Ohio River at Cincinnati.

"You have a program that ultimately is going to succeed," John D. Cherry, head of the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation (BOR) Great Lakes division told local governmental and civic leaders.

Little Miami Inc., a nonprofit civic group, has been leading the fight to have the lower 60 miles of the river between Foster, Ohio and the Ohio River at Cincinnati, included in the federal Scenic Rivers Act.

Ultimately, local officials said, the plan would give Cincinnati a park and protected river through its eastern side. Many county and municipal officials along the Little Miami plan park developments. Some federal funds for land acquisition have been received.

The entire 105 mile length of the Little Miami has a state scenic designation.

Federal inclusion would mean protection of developments including power plants and gravel quarries along the stream, used mainly by campers, hikers and canoeists.

Cherry said federal protection would mean little money, however, "What you are seeking is prestige," he said. Cherry said he would offer no timetable but promised cooperation and technical help.

Cherry toured the river by helicopter Tuesday.

"The Little Miami has been the most successful study we have ever been involved in," Cherry said.

"One reason is the spirit of the people involved. Nowhere have I seen more dedication and support for a program. There is complete cooperation" among the various state and local groups and agencies involved.

Cherry explained that he saw some impediments along the stream. They included trucks driving through the stream at low points, some private homes and debris from dumping at several locations.

Preservation programs up to now include annual cleanups by Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts and other groups, a publicity barrage and approval by the Ohio-Kentucky-Indiana Regional Planning Commission (OKI).

Claim Civilian Fired First At KSU

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — A civilian pulled a pistol from under his sport coat and fired into the air at Kent State University about three seconds before Ohio National Guardsmen shot 13 students there five years ago, a former student testified Tuesday.

Joy Bishop of Canton said the man, wearing a yellow or gold jacket and carrying a briefcase, walked to the corner of the dormitory from whose roof she was watching.

"He stood there briefly, pulled a gun and fired one shot into the air," she told the jury.

The guardsmen wheeled at the top of a campus slope and, two to five seconds after the pistol shot, opened fire, she said.

The shooting May 4, 1970 left four students dead, and the survivors and their families are suing 32 present or former guardsmen and state officials for $46 million in damages.

Lawyers for the victims promised to call Mrs. Bishop's roommate and one of her friends, both of whom shared her rooftop vantage point. The attorneys claimed neither saw what Mrs. Bishop described.

The witness told the panel of seven men and five women deciding the claims that she felt pressured the night before when she received a telephone call from plaintiffs' attorney David Engdahl. The lawyer told her he had found inconsistencies in her statements and that unless she cleared them up over the phone she would be embarrassed in court, she said.

Engdahl later denied any impropriety in the call and dismissed her story as irrelevant, stopping short of claiming she lied.

Mrs. Bishop, now a teacher of retarded children, said it was the first time she had told of the gunman in public. She said she gave her account to lawyers for eight former guardsmen indicted last year in the shootings and to Justice Department attorneys who obtained the indictments. The criminal charges were dismissed when a federal judge ruled the government had failed to prove its case.

Mrs. Bishop said the gunman was chased down the hill away from the side on which guardsmen were firing. The jury has seen a television news film of a man identified as Terrence B. Norman being chased down the hill to lines from which the guardsmen set out to disperse an antiwar rally.

A campus policeman took a .38-cal. pistol from Norman and witnesses have testified he announced it had not been fired. In a written statement, Norman also said he had not fired the weapon and pulled it on the hill only after students attacked him as he took their pictures.

Hospital Chief Denies Charges

GALLIPOLIS, Ohio (AP) — The superintendent of the Gallipolis Institute for the mentally retarded says his facility is understaffed but his patients are cared for.

Dr. Bernard Niehm rejected charges that patient abuse made recently by several staff members.

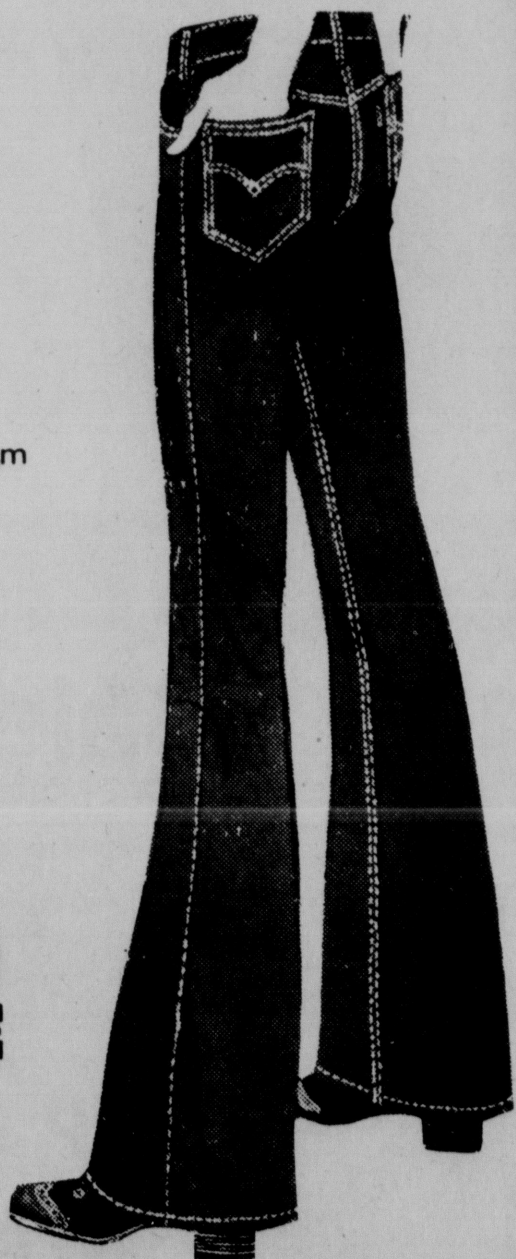

"I want them to be specific with these charges," he said Tuesday night as he opened the doors of the 70-year-old institution to The Associated Press.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Beuter of Columbus and Leslie Beuter of Clearwater, Fla. were Thursday luncheon guests of Mrs. Luadah Hartman. Monday afternoon callers were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Steckman of Boynton Beach, Fla. and Mrs. Pat Brodhead and son, Jen of Columbus. Other recent callers at the Hartman home were Mr. and Mrs. Francis Schaeffer of Columbus.

Mrs. Sophie Roll, a former resident of the White Church neighborhood, observed her 92nd birthday at Marietta Place where she now resides. Seated with the guest of honor at a beautifully appointed table for luncheon were her niece, Mrs. Charles Wood, Mrs. Hazel Carbaugh and Mrs. Florence Miller.

Among the members of the Women's Society of her church who joined them for birthday cake were Mrs. Mae Ross, Mrs. Helen Bowsher, Mrs. Barbara Marr, and Mrs. Ruth Munn. Each one in the dining room was served a slice of the multi-tiered, decorated cake. Mrs. Roll was also pleased with all the remembrances she received from her many friends.

Tracy Dresbach expects to start an intensive course in Ranger training when he reports to Ft. Stewart near Savannah, Ga. next week. Tracy, age 19 and a 1974 graduate of Zane Trace High School, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Dresbach, enlisted in the Army about four months ago and took his basic training at Ft. Polk, La.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kerns joined other families of the V.F.W. All Star baseball team at Lakewood near Cleveland over the weekend. Their son Brian is a member of the winning team. Accompanying them was Donnie Mallow.

One of our older senior citizens celebrated her 97th birthday Aug. 8. Miss Hazel Dixon, Mrs. Margaret Mattinson and Mrs. Frances Crawford served as hostesses when Miss Annie Dunkle welcomed a host of friends and neighbors at open house.

Also present were two cousins, Mrs. Fern Schwartz and Mrs. Belva Forquer, both of Circleville. Traditional birthday party refreshments were served and the guest of honor was delighted with the many remembrances of her day.

Miss Lois Wisenberger of Dayton spent the weekend here with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Adams and son Christopher.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Jones and children Jamie, Mark and Lori entertained at a barbeque and swimming party Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fish and family and two nieces, Amy and Becky Hash, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Adams and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Likens, Miss Vicki Likens, Mr. and Mrs. Orla B. Uhrick and Lisa, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Congrove and children, Scott and Jennifer, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lingg and children, Susan, Mark and Shelley, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Timmons, Mrs. Larry Street and sons and Mr. and Mrs. James Scott.

Monday evening callers, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Lauerman were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Lauerman Jr. and Pam of Chillicothe and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jackson and son Andy.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Street and sons, Larry and Tim and Mrs. Street's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Houk of Crooksville are back from a week's camping trip in Kentucky and Tennessee.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Jones and Lori and niece Julie Strawser are back from a Florida vacation. They camped at Busche Gardens, went to Clearwater and Tampa where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Uhrick and son Jeff and then spent a day at Disney World. On the way home they stopped in Atlanta and visited several points of interest including the famous 'Underground Atlanta.'

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Likens spent five days at Cumberland Lake and then Mrs. Likens and daughter, Vicki flew to Daytona Beach for a few days. They also visited Mrs. Likens' brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Les McCordle at their home in Bradenton, Fla.

No Surprises In Labor Research

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The largest research project ever funded by the U.S. Department of Labor — costing over $13 million so far — is proving things many people already assumed to be true.

The study verifies that young black women suffer more in the labor market from being female than from being black. High-ranking black women have said this in the past.

The project also indicates black teenage girls have higher unemployment rates than any other group in the work force.

And, it strengthens feminists' stand

Steel Price Revisions Set

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Republic Steel Corp. says it will revise its prices over the next six weeks in line with changes announced Friday by "a major competitor."

The nation's No. 1 steel producer, U.S. Steel Corp., announced Friday it was adjusting prices, with increases averaging 3.8 per cent.

The Big Steel action was followed by statements from Armco Steel Corp. and WheelingPittsburgh Steel Corp. that they would modify previously announced increases to bring them in line with the U.S. Steel hikes.

Armco and Wheeling-Pittsburgh originally set their price hikes at about 9 per cent.

Republic said its price changes will include reductions on some items effective immediately and increases on other items to take effect by Oct. 1.

Republic said the increases will not be sufficient to offset cost increases and further price increases are anticipated as market conditions warrant.

Public Hearings Slated On Transmission Line

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Power Siting Commission will hold public hearings Aug. 18-20 on Cleveland Electric Illuminating Co.'s request to run a transmission line from the Perry Nuclear Power Plant to the Inland Substation in Cleveland.

The first hearing will be in Mentor Aug. 18, the second at Chardon Aug. 19 and the final in Bedford. An adjudication hearing will also be held in Bedford, Aug. 21.

on discrimination. It substantiates arguments that the majority of women with the same experience as men still earn less doing the same job.

The four-pronged study, started in 1966 and expected to run into the 1980s, is being run from Ohio State University's Center for Human Resources.

Data is being gathered on work prospects and realizations of young women who were 14 to 24 when the project began, young men in the same age group, women who were 30 to 44, and men 45 to 59.

Dr. Andrew Kohen, the project director, said, "Once we fully understand how and why people do what they do, we can make recommendations to federal and local governments which set policies."

Inadequate information leads to mistakes, he said, pointing to a comprehensive child care bill passed in 1971 by Congress and vetoed by President Nixon.

"Proponents stressed the strong need, but no one had the hard facts that they were right," Kohen said. "Our data shows the need is not as great as was earlier thought, but a need does exist for low income families."

"It also shows, however, that national policies, aid to dependent children, etc., have contributed tremendously already to alleviate the problem."

In all, 20,000 people in the four groups are being surveyed annually all over the country.

Some findings:

—When a young black girl and a young white, both training through high school commercial courses, compete for the same clerical job, the white is more apt to get it.

"Discrimination may not be the reason," said Kohen. "The difference may be the quality of the training and the white girl's broader background."

—The women's movement has had a substantial impact on women's education, goals and career plans.

Kohen said, "Evidence indicates aspirations of women in their 30s are much higher than the actual incidence of women holding down the good jobs aspired to."

"We're going to face a situation where there are a lot of frustrated ambitions unless colleges encourage them to train in new areas. Instead of studying to be teachers, a field that's overloaded, women should have been encouraged to be engineers, for instance. It's the encouragement that's lacking."

Cheerleading Tourney Slated

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — The eighth annual cheerleading tournament conducted by the University of Toledo's varsity cheerleaders will be held in two sessions Aug. 16 and 17 and Aug. 19 and 20.

It is expected to attract 600 high school and junior varsity cheerleading squads from Ohio and southeastern Michigan.

Rioting Spreads Across Portugal

LISBON, Portugal (AP) — Support for moderate military opponents of Communist-backed Premier Vasco Goncalves spread into the streets in northern Portugal today, with rioting that left more than a dozen wounded, four seriously.

A hospital in the north-central town of Viseu denied an early report that one man had died in the three-way scuffling and shooting among Communists, organized political moderates and government troops.

In Lisbon, meanwhile, the head of the military academy, an intimate of Goncalves, resigned from the Revolutionary Council, widening the split between moderates and radicals in the ruling armed forces. His resignation was seen as a gesture of support for Goncalves.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Beuter of Columbus and Leslie Beuter of Clearwater, Fla. were Thursday luncheon guests of Mrs. Luadah Hartman. Monday afternoon callers were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Steckman of Boynton Beach, Fla. and Mrs. Pat Brodhead and son, Jen of Columbus. Other recent callers at the Hartman home were Mr. and Mrs. Francis Schaeffer of Columbus.

Mrs. Sophie Roll, a former resident of the White Church neighborhood, observed her 92nd birthday at Marrietta Place where she now resides. Seated with the guest of honor at a beautifully appointed table for luncheon were her niece, Mrs. Charles Wood, Mrs. Hazel Carbaugh and Mrs. Florence Miller.

Among the members of the Women's Society of her church who joined them for birthday cake were Mrs. Mae Ross, Mrs. Helen Bowsher, Mrs. Barbara Marr, and Mrs. Ruth Munn. Each one in the dining room was served a slice of the multi-tiered, decorated cake. Mrs. Roll was also pleased with all the remembrances she received from her many friends.

Tracy Dresbach expects to start an intensive course in Ranger training when he reports to Ft. Stewart near Savannah, Ga. next week. Tracy, age 19 and a 1974 graduate of Zane Trace High School, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Dresbach, enlisted in the Army about four months ago and took his basic training at Ft. Polk, La.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kerns joined other families of the V.F.W. All Star baseball team at Lakewood near Cleveland over the weekend. Their son Brian is a member of the winning team. Accompanying them was Donnie Mallow.

One of our older senior citizens celebrated her 97th birthday Aug. 8. Miss Hazel Dixon, Mrs. Margaret Mattinson and Mrs. Frances Crawford served as hostesses when Miss Annie Dunkle welcomed a host of friends and neighbors at open house.

Also present were two cousins, Mrs. Fern Schwartz and Mrs. Belva Forquer, both of Circleville. Traditional birthday party refreshments were served and the guest of honor was delighted with the many remembrances of her day.

Miss Lois Wisenberger of Dayton spent the weekend here with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Adams and son Christopher.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Jones and children Jamie, Mark and Lori entertained at a barbeque and swimming party Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fish and family and two nieces, Amy and Becky Hash, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Adams and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Likens, Miss Vicki Likens, Mr. and Mrs. Orla B. Uhrick and Lisa, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Congrove and children, Scott and Jennifer, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lingg and children, Susan, Mark and Shelley, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Timmons, Mrs. Larry Street and sons and Mr. and Mrs. James Scott.

Monday evening callers, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Lauerman were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Lauerman Jr. and Pam of Chillicothe and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jackson and son Andy.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Street and sons, Larry and Tim and Mrs. Street's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Houk of Crooksville are back from a week's camping trip in Kentucky and Tennessee.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Jones and Lori and niece Julie Strawser are back from a Florida vacation. They camped at Busche Gardens, went to Clearwater and Tampa where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Uhrick and son Jeff and then spent a day at Disney World. On the way home they stopped in Atlanta and visited several points of interest including the famous 'Underground Atlanta.'

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Likens spent five days at Cumberland Lake and then Mrs. Likens and daughter, Vicki flew to Daytona Beach for a few days. They also visited Mrs. Likens' brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Les McCordle at their home in Bradenton, Fla.

No Surprises In Labor Research

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The largest research project ever funded by the U.S. Department of Labor — costing over $13 million so far — is proving things many people already assumed to be true.

The study verifies that young black women suffer more in the labor market from being female than from being black. High-ranking black women have said this in the past.

The project also indicates black teenage girls have higher unemployment rates than any other group in the work force.

And, it strengthens feminists' stand

Steel Price Revisions Set

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Republic Steel Corp. says it will revise its prices over the next six weeks in line with changes announced Friday by "a major competitor."

The nation's No. 1 steel producer, U.S. Steel Corp., announced Friday it was adjusting prices, with increases averaging 3.8 per cent.

The Big Steel action was followed by statements from Armco Steel Corp. and Wheeling-Pittsburgh Steel Corp. that they would modify previously announced increases to bring them in line with the U.S. Steel hikes.

Armco and Wheeling-Pittsburgh originally set their price hikes at about 9 per cent.

Republic said its price changes will include reductions on some items effective immediately and increases on other items to take effect by Oct. 1.

Republic said the increases will not be sufficient to offset cost increases and further price increases are anticipated as market conditions warrant.

Public Hearings Slated On Transmission Line

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Power Siting Commission will hold public hearings Aug. 18-20 on Cleveland Electric Illuminating Co.'s request to run a transmission line from the Perry Nuclear Power Plant to the Inland Substation in Cleveland.

The first hearing will be in Mentor Aug. 18, the second at Chardon Aug. 19 and the final in Bedford. An adjudication hearing will also be held in Bedford, Aug. 21.

on discrimination. It substantiates arguments that the majority of women with the same experience as men still earn less doing the same job.

The four-pronged study, started in 1966 and expected to run into the 1980s, is being run from Ohio State University's Center for Human Resources.

Data is being gathered on work prospects and realizations of young women who were 14 to 24 when the project began, young men in the same age group, women who were 30 to 44, and men 45 to 59.

Dr. Andrew Kohen, the project director, said, "Once we fully understand how and why people do what they do, we can make recommendations to federal and local governments which set policies."

Inadequate information leads to mistakes, he said, pointing to a comprehensive child care bill passed in 1971 by Congress and vetoed by President Nixon.

"Proponents stressed the strong need, but no one had the hard facts that they were right," Kohen said. "Our data shows the need is not as great as was earlier thought, but a need does exist for low income families."

"It also shows, however, that national policies, aid to dependent children, etc., have contributed tremendously already to alleviate the problem."

In all, 20,000 people in the four groups are being surveyed annually all over the country.

Some findings:

—When a young black girl and a young white, both training through high school commercial courses, compete for the same clerical job, the white is more apt to get it.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

'Lab' Errand Irks

DEAR ABBY: I have a neighbor who I like, but his wife can be very obnoxious.

This wife asked me to take a urine sample to the hospital lab for her in the morning because she and her husband leave for work earlier than the lab opens up and I go right by the hospital on my way to work later.

I said no flat out. The next morning, this woman's mother was there to pick up the little jar to deliver it to the hospital, which is only six blocks away.

IT'S URINE, NOT MINE
DEAR IT'S: I think you were being unduly squeamish. You probably would have taken a blood sample and would not have been shocked by the request-unless, of course, you don't like any part of your neighbor's wife.

DEAR ABBY: Joe, a guy I bowl with, told me that he just came back from Las Vegas where he had been the best man at three weddings. (I'll call the bridegroom "Paul.")

Joe said that Paul first married a girl who was visibly pregnant just to give her baby a name. Immediately after they were married, Paul divorced her.

Then Paul went back to the chapel and married Girl No. 2 for the same reason. As soon as they were married, Paul divorced her, too.

Paul said the divorces had been set up in advance.

Then they went back to the chapel and Paul married the girl he was really in love with. (Joe said the third one didn't look pregnant.)

How about blood tests and waiting periods? Personally, I think this so-called "BEST MAN" IS FULL OF BALONEY, BUT HE SWEARS THIS ACTUALLY HAPPENED.

Is this possible?

DOUBTING THOMAS
DEAR TOM: It's possible. Blood tests and waiting periods are not required in Nevada. I am informed that divorces are final when granted and the parties are free to marry immediately.

DEAR ABBY: The nursing problems of 1880 caught my eye because I was a graduate nurse in 1908.

In training we received $8 per month for four years. We worked 10 hours daily, six days a week, and did all the cleaning. Three months every year we worked in the TB ward.

Later, on private cases, we were allowed to charge only $25 a week. On contagious cases, we cooked all the patient's meals in the family kitchen, but many times, all I got to eat was one bowl of milk and bread.

On private cases we worked 20 hours a day and usually left the case after three weeks feeling exhausted and very hungry.

Today, nursing is a ball.

Birthday Party Set For Ohio Lottery

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)— One of the first duties of the Ohio lottery's new executive director, Robert Chiaramonte, will be to go on television to cut the cake for the lottery's first birthday celebration Thursday night.

The party is being held in conjunction with the weekly Buckeye 300 drawing, and lottery officials say $8.6 million worth of previous winners will be on hand in sort of a homecoming gathering.

The big winners from past drawings will include two millionaire winners and twenty-two $300,000 winners, the lottery commission reported Monday.

Altogether, the lottery has created five millionaires and handed out more than $45 million in prizes, including fifty $300,000 prizes, since going into business a year ago.

The 54-year-old Chiaramonte, former State Highway Patrol superintendent who came out of retirement

University Of Dayton Continues Accreditation

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—The executive board of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools has allowed the University of Dayton to continue offering doctoral degrees, the university announced.

The school said the continuation of accreditation assures the future of doctoral programs in biology, engineering and law. The next evaluation of the program will come in three years.

with orders from Gov. James A. Rhodes to shape up the lottery, said his top priority will be "sorting out things in the personnel area."

He said he doesn't mind lottery employees engaging in politics as long as they don't do it on state time and it doesn't interfere with lottery business.

His predecessor, Robert Malaga, quit Friday after clashing with the five-member lottery commission over personnel matters, including the issue of employees in politics. The commission said it had no legal right to bar employees from engaging in politics on their own time.

Chairamonte, named by Rhodes a few hours after Malaga resigned, said in an interview he is not a politician and doesn't even like to talk politics.

"Two things I never ask people are their politics and their religion," he said.

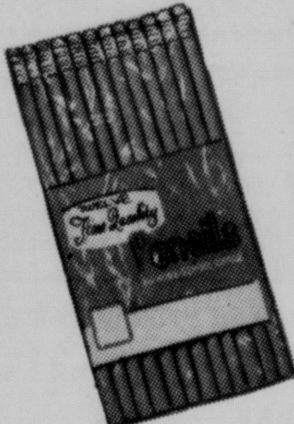

He says he will proceed slowly and acquaint himself fully with lottery operations before recommending any changes.

Chiaramonte was impressed by the reception given him by lottery employees. He said a number of workers came up to say, "welcome aboard. We're glad to have you."

Birthday Party Set For Ohio Lottery

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—One of the first duties of the Ohio lottery's new executive director, Robert Chiaramonte, will be to go on television to cut the cake for the lottery's first birthday celebration Thursday night.

The party is being held in conjunction with the weekly Buckeye 300 drawing, and lottery officials say $8.6 million worth of previous winners will be on hand in sort of a homecoming gathering.

The big winners from past drawings will include two millionaire winners and twenty-two $300,000 winners, the lottery commission reported Monday.

Altogether, the lottery has created five millionaires and handed out more than $45 million in prizes, including fifty $300,000 prizes, since going into business a year ago.

The 54-year-old Chiaramonte, former State Highway Patrol superintendent who came out of retirement

University Of Dayton Continues Accreditation

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—The executive board of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools has allowed the University of Dayton to continue offering doctoral degrees, the university announced.

The school said the continuation of accreditation assures the future of doctoral programs in biology, engineering and law. The next evaluation of the program will come in three years.

with orders from Gov. James A. Rhodes to shape up the lottery, said his top priority will be "sorting out things in the personnel area."

He said he doesn't mind lottery employees engaging in politics as long as they don't do it on state time and it doesn't interfere with lottery business.

His predecessor, Robert Malaga, quit Friday after clashing with the five-member lottery commission over personnel matters, including the issue of employees in politics. The commission said it had no legal right to bar employees from engaging in politics on their own time.

Chairamonte, named by Rhodes a few hours after Malaga resigned, said in an interview he is not a politician and doesn't even like to talk politics.

"Two things I never ask people are their politics and their religion," he said.

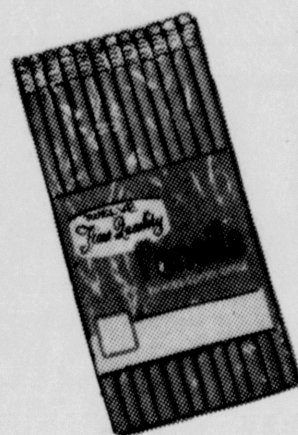

He says he will proceed slowly and acquaint himself fully with lottery operations before recommending any changes.

Chiaramonte was impressed by the reception given him by lottery employees. He said a number of workers came up to say, "welcome aboard. We're glad to have you."

Reds Finally Outlast Cubs, 12-8

CINCINNATI (AP)—Chicago Manager Jim Marshall shrugged, the Reds were bewildered, nobody was really happy. Cincinnati spotted the Cubs four runs and had to come back twice before upending Chicago 12-8 in a free-swinging contest that saw eight pitchers and 34 base hits. "The trouble," said Cubs Manager

Jim Marshall after Chicago dropped the second of a two-game series, "is there isn't an out on that team (the Reds)." "Everybody knocks their pitchers, but I like what I saw." "Sure, we got a lot of hits tonight. Our club is coming along and we're building for the future." Chicago's Jose Cardinal hammered in four runs and John Madlock, the National League's leading hitter, went four-for-five. "I couldn't believe it," said a wide-eyed Tony Perez of Cincinnati. He had three runs batted in for the night including a two-run double in the sixth that ultimately won the game. "They have a four-run lead and we won the game. "It seems like we hit everything everybody threw. It was noisy out there tonight." Cincinnati outthit Chicago 18-16. "Chicago is a good club," said Reds leading hitter Pete Rose, who knows about such things. "It's nicer being ahead and have the pressure on the other guys to catch you," said Madlock, who hopes to be the Cubs' first batting champion since Billy Williams in 1972 and Phil Cavarretta in 1955. "I don't keep track on everyone else this early. That's what you do in September, but you have to get your hits this month because you play fewer games in September," said Madlock. Reds' starter Pat Darcy was bombed for four runs by the Cubs in the first inning and was chased with only one out. Joe Morgan batted in a run for Cincinnati in the latter half of the inning then the Reds tied it in the third with a five-run uprising and took the lead at 8-6 on a Tom Detmore balk in the fourth. Undaunted, Chicago's Jose Cardinal doubled home two more runs in the sixth and the Reds took the lead for good in the bottom of the sixth and scored their final run in the eighth. "I'm just glad to get out of this town," said a tired Cubs pitcher Rick Reuschel, after finishing up the game. He started against Cincinnati Monday night. Cincinnati maintained its 15½-game lead over the Los Angeles Dodgers in the Western Division of the National League. Both the Reds and Cubs are idle today.

GIRLS CHAMPS—The Fire Department team of the Circleville Girls Softball League compiled a 12-2 record and captured the league championship. Team members were: from the left, first row, Serena Clark, Terri Ballou, Mary Pat Sberna and Kathy Flynn.

Tigers Lose 17th Straight Game

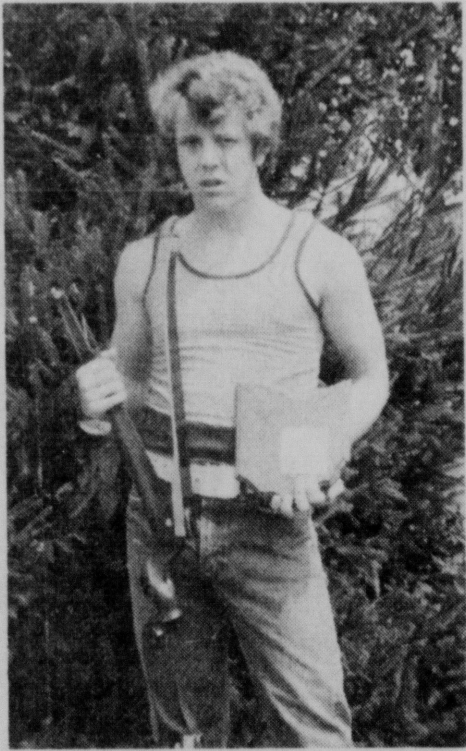

By HOWARD SMITH AP Sports Writer The Detroit Tigers, down so long they can't remember up, have not lost heart. "They're playing hard," said Texas Manager Frank Lucchesi. "They're playing like they're going down the stretch for a pennant. They're not going through the motions. They're hustling." The Tigers lost their 17th straight game Tuesday night, bowing to the Rangers 4-3. Texas scored four times in the first inning and the Tigers spent the rest of the night trying to catch up. Elsewhere in the American League, Kansas City beat Baltimore 4-2 in 10 innings, Boston whipped California 8-2, New York downed Oakland 7-2, Cleveland trimmed Chicago 6-3 and Milwaukee beat Minnesota 7-4. The Tigers' latest loss brings them within three games of tying the American League record for futility and within seven of the major league mark. They did get on the scoreboard Tuesday night, however, snapping a 31-inning drought in the third inning when Aurelio Rodriguez tripled and came in on Tom Verzyer's single. Rodriguez leaped on the plate as the crowd cheered wildly. Ron LeFlore and Dan Meyer drove in runs with sacrifice flies in the seventh for the other Detroit runs. Vern Ruhle, 9-9, survived Texas' four-run first inning to finish with a five-hitter. Toby Harrah's two-run double was the big blow for the Rangers in the rally. Stan Perzanowski worked six innings for Texas to record his first major league victory. Royals 4, Orioles 2 Amos Otis singled, his fourth hit of the night, stole second and scored on George Brett's two-out double in the 10th for Kansas City. Harmon Killebrew singled in an insurance run as the Royals closed to within 5½ games of first-place Oakland in the American League West. Doug Bird, 8-4, got the victory with 41-3 innings of scoreless relief. Red Sox 8, Angels 2 Rick Wise, 16-6, won his ninth straight game as Boston upped its lead in the American League East to seven games. Wise, who hasn't lost since June 22, tossed a seven-hitter in besting rookie Chuck Hockenberry, 0-2. Carlton Fisk had two singles and a double and drove in three runs for the Red Sox. Yanks 7, A's 2 Doc Medich, 11-12, limited Oakland to six hits and Chris Chambliss collected a single, double and triple and drove in two runs for New York. Walt Williams hit a solo homer for the Yanks. Ken Holtzman, 14-11, took the loss. Indians 6, White Sox 3 George Hendrick drove in three runs for Cleveland, two of them with his 17th home run of the season. Fritz Peterson won his third straight game to even his record at 7-7 and Wilbur Wood, 12-15, took the loss. Bill Stein doubled home two runs for the White Sox. Brewers 7, Twins 4 Milwaukee scored four times in the first inning to chase Jim Hughes, 10-10, and help Bill Travers, 5-7, win for the first time in six weeks. Robin Yount and Bill Sharp contributed doubles and Hank Aaron and Jim Hegan had run-scoring singles in the Brewer first. Eric Soderholm homered for Minnesota.

Scott Heeter Aids LL Minor Stars Win

In reporting the game between the Circleville Minor League All-Stars (10-year-old) and Olentangy in the Hilliard Tournament, Scott Heeter's contribution to the Circleville victory, a double and two RBIs, was inadvertently omitted.

TOP ARCHER—Dewey Chaffin of Ashville won the O. B. A. Jr. Ohio State championship at Apache Bow Hunting Range in Darbyville. Dewey was shooting with a K M 2 compound bow and 20.16 aluminum arrows.

Local High Schools Open Practice Today

All four county high schools will officially open 1975 football practice today in preparation for the season grid openers on Sept. 5. Coach Larry Cook and his Circleville Tigers will be working out from 9:25 a.m. to 11 a.m. and 3:25 p.m. until 5 p.m. this week. Beginning Monday the Tigers will be on the practice field from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. and 3:15 to 5 p.m. until the season starts.

KENT, Ohio (AP)—Both Mike Phipps and Brian Sipes will get plenty of playing time next weekend as the Cleveland Browns continue to look for a regular starter at quarterback. At training camp here, Browns coach Forrest Gregg said Phipps will start against the Philadelphia Eagles Saturday night at Cleveland Stadium. But because of Phipps' spotty performance against the San Francisco 49ers Sunday, Sipes may be brought in during the first half. The Browns lost to the 49ers 17-13. Gregg discounted any notions that the Browns will alternate quarterbacks during the regular season. "I prefer to have one man handling the job. I would like to have a regular starter," Gregg said. He observed that receivers as well as other teammates become conditioned to the play calling of one man and prefer it that way. Also for the Eagles exhibition game, Steve Holden and Reggie Rucker are expected to start. Both wide receivers missed the last exhibition game but they were running well at scrimmage Tuesday.

After starring in the All-Star game, southpaw Jon Matlack of the New York Mets lost his next start to Atlanta, the result of two infield errors.

Cook has 48 candidates battling for berths when the Red and Black opens the season at Chillicothe. Circleville has set up a scrimmage schedule that includes a 10 a.m. encounter with Groveport on Aug. 23, Dayton Franklin at 6:30 p.m. Aug. 27 and a reserve battle with Logan 10 a.m. Aug. 30. All three games will be played at Circleville. The Teays Valley Vikings of coach Dick Kidwell will be on the practice field from 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. A total of 47 gridgers will be battling for berths when the Blue and Gold travels to Groveport for its season opener. New Mile By Walker GOTEBORG, Sweden (AP) — John Walker runs in nobody's shadow anymore. After two years of chasing Filbert Bayi, Walker put it all together in what he described as "a perfect race" and shattered one of sport's most revered records, running the mile in 3 minutes, 49.4 seconds at the Goteborg Games international track and field meet Tuesday night. "I feel extremely happy — I still can't believe I've broken the record," said Walker, a 23-year-old New Zealander who burst onto the international track scene just two years ago. "I didn't believe I had a chance. I've been thinking it over and over the last few days — how to run, how to beat it (the record). Now I feel I couldn't have run a more perfect race." Running under ideal conditions, Walker took the lead on the third lap and sped away from the field to become the first man in history to break 3:50 for the mile. He shaved 1.6 seconds off the world record of 3:51.0, set by Bayi in Kingston, Jamaica May 17. The record came before a crowd estimated at 9,000 at Slottskogsvallen Stadium. Walker, the only truly topflight miler in the field, finished nearly six seconds ahead of Ken Hall of Australia, who was clocked in 3:55.2. Graeme Crouch of Australia placed third in 3:56.4 and Gunnar Ekman of Sweden was fourth in 4:01.5. The temperature was 77 degrees when the race began, at 7:50 p.m. local time.

Reds Finally Outlast Cubs, 12-8

CINCINNATI (AP)—Chicago Manager Jim Marshall shrugged, the Reds were bewildered, nobody was really happy. Cincinnati spotted the Cubs four runs and had to come back twice before upending Chicago 12-8 in a free-swinging contest that saw eight pitchers and 34 base hits. "The trouble," said Cubs Manager

but I like what I saw." "Sure, we got a lot of hits tonight. Our club is coming along and we're building for the future."

Chicago's Jose Cardinal hammered in four runs and John Madlock, the National League's leading hitter, went four-for-five.

"I couldn't believe it," said a wide-eyed Tony Perez of Cincinnati. He had three runs batted in for the night including a two-run double in the sixth that ultimately won the game. "They have a four-run lead and we won the game."

"It seems like we hit everything everybody threw. It was noisy out there tonight."

Cincinnati outthit Chicago 18-16.

"Chicago is a good club," said Reds leading hitter Pete Rose, who knows about such things.

"It's nicer being ahead and have the pressure on the other guys to catch you," said Madlock, who hopes to be the Cubs' first batting champion since Billy Williams in 1972 and Phil Cavarretta in 1955.

"I don't keep track on everyone else this early. That's what you do in September, but you have to get your hits this month because you play fewer games in September," said Madlock.

Reds' starter Pat Darcy was bombed for four runs by the Cubs in the first inning and was chased with only one out.

Joe Morgan batted in a run for Cincinnati in the latter half of the inning then the Reds tied it in the third with a five-run uprising and took the lead at 8-6 on a Tom Dettore balk in the fourth.

Undaunted, Chicago's Jose Cardinal doubled home two more runs in the sixth and the Reds took the lead for good in the bottom of the sixth and scored their final run in the eighth.

"I'm just glad to get out of this town," said a tired Cubs pitcher Rick Reuschel, after finishing up the game. He started against Cincinnati Monday night.

Cincinnati maintained its 15 1/2-game lead over the Los Angeles Dodgers in the Western Division of the National League.

Both the Reds and Cubs are idle today.

Tigers Lose 17th Straight Game

By HOWARD SMITH AP Sports Writer

The Detroit Tigers, down so long they can't remember up, have not lost heart.

"They're playing hard," said Texas Manager Frank Lucchesi. "They're playing like they're going down the stretch for a pennant. They're not going through the motions. They're hustling."

The Tigers lost their 17th straight game Tuesday night, bowing to the Rangers 4-3. Texas scored four times in the first inning and the Tigers spent the rest of the night trying to catch up.

Elsewhere in the American League, Kansas City beat Baltimore 4-2 in 10 innings, Boston whipped California 8-2, New York downed Oakland 7-2, Cleveland trimmed Chicago 6-3 and Milwaukee beat Minnesota 7-4.

The Tigers' latest loss brings them within three games of tying the American League record for futility and within seven of the major league mark. They did get on the scoreboard Tuesday night, however, snapping a 31-inning drought in the third inning when Aurelio Rodriguez tripled and came in on Tom Verzyer's single. Rodriguez leaped on the plate as the crowd cheered wildly.

Ron LeFlore and Dan Meyer drove in runs with sacrifice flies in the seventh for the other Detroit runs. Vern Ruhle, 9-9, survived Texas' four-run first inning to finish with a five-hitter. Toby Harrah's two-run double was the big blow for the Rangers in the rally.

Stan Perzanowski worked six innings for Texas to record his first major league victory.

Royals 4, Orioles 2 Amos Otis singled, his fourth hit of the night, stole second and scored on George Brett's two-out double in the 10th for Kansas City. Harmon Killebrew singled in an insurance run as the Royals closed to within 5 1/2 games of first-place Oakland in the American League West. Doug Bird, 8-4, got the victory with 41-3 innings of red-sox relief.

Red Sox 8, Angels 2 Rick Wise, 16-6, won his ninth straight game as Boston upped its lead in the American League East to seven games. Wise, who hasn't lost since June 22, tossed a seven-hitter in besting rookie Chuck Hockenberry, 0-2. Carlton Fisk had two singles and a double and drove in three runs for the Red Sox.

Yanks 7, A's 2 Doc Medich, 11-12, limited Oakland to six hits and Chris Chambliss collected a single, double and triple and drove in two runs for New York. Walt Williams hit a solo homer for the Yanks. Ken Holtzman, 14-11, took the loss.

Indians 6, White Sox 3 George Hendrick drove in three runs for Cleveland, two of them with his 17th home run of the season. Fritz Peterson won his third straight game to even his record at 7-7 and Wilbur Wood, 12-15, took the loss. Bill Stein doubled home two runs for the White Sox.

Brewers 7, Twins 4 Milwaukee scored four times in the first inning to chase Jim Hughes, 10-10, and help Bill Travers, 5-7, win for the first time in six weeks. Robin Yount and Bill Sharp contributed doubles and Hank Aaron and Jim Hegan had run-scoring singles in the Brewer first. Eric Soderholm homered for Minnesota.

Braves Trip Up Pirates, 3-2

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
AP Sports Writer
The Belloir family stayed home Tuesday night ... all except young Rob Belloir.

He showed up at Atlanta Stadium to play shortstop for the Braves — his fifth major league game — and collected his first extra-base hit and first runs batted in with a tie-breaking two-out two-run double in the seventh inning that enabled the Braves to defeat the slumping Pittsburgh Pirates 3-2.

The native Atlantan's clutch blow off Bruce Kison, his second hit of the game and third of his big league career, followed an intentional walk to Ralph Garr and gave the Braves a 3-1 lead.

The loss was the 10th in the last 14 games for the Pirates but they remained three games ahead of Philadelphia in the National League's East Division when the Los Angeles Dodgers edged the Phillies 7-6 on Steve Yeager's three-run homer in the 10th inning.

Elsewhere, the St. Louis Cardinals climbed to within 5½ games of the top with a 5-4 victory over the Houston Astros, the New York Mets are 6½ games back after trouncing the San Diego Padres 9-4, the Cincinnati Reds outslugged the Chicago Cubs 12-8 and the San Francisco Giants downed the Montreal Expos 5-2 in 11 innings.

"It was the first game my parents didn't come to," Belloir said. "Last night, I left 16 passes at the gate for relatives and friends and tonight I left none. It's too bad they couldn't have been here tonight."

Dodgers 7, Phillies 6
Jimmy Wynn opened the Los Angeles 10th with a single off Gene Garber, who had allowed only one hit and struck out six since coming on in the sixth. Steve Garvey sacrificed and, after an intentional walk to Ron Cey, Yeager, who singled a run home in the Dodgers' three-run first, walloped his seventh home run of the season. Philadelphia's Jay Johnstone hit a two-run homer off Mike Marshall in the bottom of the 10th.

Cardinals 5, Astros 4
Ted Simmons hit a two-run homer, Lou Brock delivered a two-run single and rookie John Denny singled home what turned out to be the winning run while notching his seventh pitching triumph.

Mets 9, Padres 4
Tom Seaver became the NL's second 16-game winner and Ed Kranepool ignited a four-run rally in the third inning with a run-scoring double. Seaver lost his shutout bid in the seventh on Randy Hundley's two-run homer.

Reds 12, Cubs 8
Tony Perez drove in four runs with three singles and a double in a free-swinging 34-hit contest. The Reds outhit the Cubs 18-16 although Chicago's Bill Madlock also collected four hits and Jose Cardenal drove in four runs with a double and triple.

Giants 5, Expos 2
Bobby Murcer ripped a tiebreaking two-run double in the 11th inning after Gary Thomasson's double and a single by Derrel Thomas. Murcer was tagged out when he overran second base but Gary Matthews walked and scored on a double by Willie Montanez. The Giants tied the score with two out in the ninth on a single by Thomas, a walk to Murcer and a single by Matthews.

Cincinnati Bengals Trim 3 Rookies

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP)— The Cincinnati Bengals have trimmed three rookies to get their roster down to 59 players.

The Bengals Tuesday asked waivers on Isaac Jackson, Matt Means and Ron Rosenberg.

Jackson, a running back, was a free agent from Kansas State. Means, a wide receiver, was a free agent from Central Michigan, while Rosenberg, a linebacker, was a 13th-round draft choice from Montana State.

LaRoche Saves Game For Tribe

CHICAGO (AP) — Dave LaRoche has rid himself of bad pitching habits and is back on the beam, this time as the relief ace of the Cleveland Indians' bull pen.

"That's a personal high for me," smiled the gentle lefthander Tuesday night after gaining his 11th save in a 6-3 victory over the Chicago White Sox.

LaRoche, who lowered his earned-run average to 1.88, came to the aid of Fritz Peterson in the eighth inning after the Sox had put two runners on base. He gave up a run-scoring single and a walk but got out of the jam and then put the Sox down in order in the ninth.

"I was a little inconsistent tonight," said LaRoche. "I made a few good pitches and a few bad ones. But my ball is alive again."

Cleveland Manager Frank Robinson credited LaRoche's comeback to "hard work by Dave and the efforts of bull pen coach Jeff Torborg, who has worked with him and keeps working with him. LaRoche has been outstanding since the middle of May."

3 More Qualify For Amateur Crown

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Dennie Spencer of Sylvania, Ohio; Tom Kelly of Fort Wayne, Ind., and Judd Silverman of Toledo qualified on the Inverness Country Club course Tuesday for the U.S. Amateur Golf Championship.

Spencer toured the par-71, 6,700-yard layout in 74-73-147. Kelly carded a 74-74-148.

Silverman finished regulation play with a 74-75-149 and deadlocked with John Cline of Ormand Beach, Fla. Silverman won a playoff with a birdie three on the second hole. Cline will be the alternate.

A field of 36 participated in the qualifying rounds.

Top Seeds All Win In Buckeye Tennis

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — All of the top seeds in the $50,000 Buckeye Tennis Championships notched opening round victories Tuesday, but fifthseeded Tom Gorman got a scare from a local hero.

Gorman had all he could handle in defeating Ohio State University junior Francis Gonzalez, the defending Big 10 singles champion, 3-6, 6-1, 7-6.

Braves Trip Up Pirates, 3-2

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
AP Sports Writer
The Belloir family stayed home Tuesday night ... all except young Rob Belloir.

He showed up at Atlanta Stadium to play shortstop for the Braves — his fifth major league game — and collected his first extra-base hit and first runs batted in with a tie-breaking two-out two-run double in the seventh inning that enabled the Braves to defeat the slumping Pittsburgh Pirates 3-2.

The native Atlantan's clutch blow off Bruce Kison, his second hit of the game and third of his big league career, followed an intentional walk to Ralph Garr and gave the Braves a 3-1 lead.

The loss was the 10th in the last 14 games for the Pirates but they remained three games ahead of Philadelphia in the National League's East Division when the Los Angeles Dodgers edged the Phillies 7-6 on Steve Yeager's three-run homer in the 10th inning.

Elsewhere, the St. Louis Cardinals climbed to within 5½ games of the top with a 5-4 victory over the Houston Astros, the New York Mets are 6½ games back after trouncing the San Diego Padres 9-4, the Cincinnati Reds outslugged the Chicago Cubs 12-8 and the San Francisco Giants downed the Montreal Expos 5-2 in 11 innings.

"It was the first game my parents didn't come to," Belloir said. "Last night, I left 16 passes at the gate for relatives and friends and tonight I left none. It's too bad they couldn't have been here tonight."

Dodgers 7, Phillies 6
Jimmy Wynn opened the Los Angeles 10th with a single off Gene Garber, who had allowed only one hit and struck out six since coming on in the sixth. Steve Garvey sacrificed and, after an intentional walk to Ron Cey, Yeager, who singled a run home in the Dodgers' three-run first, walloped his seventh home run of the season. Philadelphia's Jay Johnstone hit a two-run homer off Mike Marshall in the bottom of the 10th.

Cardinals 5, Astros 4
Ted Simmons hit a two-run homer, Lou Brock delivered a two-run single and rookie John Denny singled home what turned out to be the winning run while notching his seventh pitching triumph.

Mets 9, Padres 4
Tom Seaver became the NL's second 16-game winner and Ed Kranepool ignited a four-run rally in the third inning with a run-scoring double. Seaver lost his shutout bid in the seventh on Randy Hundley's two-run homer.

Reds 12, Cubs 8
Tony Perez drove in four runs with three singles and a double in a free-swinging 34-hit contest. The Reds out hit the Cubs 18-16 although Chicago's Bill Madlock also collected four hits and Jose Cardenal drove in four runs with a double and triple.

Giants 5, Expos 2
Bobby Murcer ripped a tiebreaking two-run double in the 11th inning after Gary Thomasson's double and a single by Derrel Thomas. Murcer was tagged out when he overran second base but Gary Matthews walked and scored on a double by Willie Montanez. The Giants tied the score with two out in the ninth on a single by Thomas, a walk to Murcer and a single by Matthews.

Cincinnati Bengals Trim 3 Rookies

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP)— The Cincinnati Bengals have trimmed three rookies to get their roster down to 59 players.

The Bengals Tuesday asked waivers on Isaac Jackson, Matt Means and Ron Rosenberg.

Jackson, a running back, was a free agent from Kansas State. Means, a wide receiver, was a free agent from Central Michigan, while Rosenberg, a linebacker, was a 13th-round draft choice from Montana State.

LaRoche Saves Game For Tribe

CHICAGO (AP) — Dave LaRoche has rid himself of bad pitching habits and is back on the beam, this time as the relief ace of the Cleveland Indians' bullpen.

"That's a personal high for me," smiled the gentle lefthander Tuesday night after gaining his 11th save in a 6-3 victory over the Chicago White Sox.

LaRoche, who lowered his earned-run average to 1.88, came to the aid of Fritz Peterson in the eighth inning after the Sox had put two runners on base. He gave up a run-scoring single and a walk but got out of the jam and then put the Sox down in order in the ninth.

"I was a little inconsistent tonight," said LaRoche. "I made a few good pitches and a few bad ones. But my ball is alive again."

Cleveland Manager Frank Robinson credited LaRoche's comeback to "hard work by Dave and the efforts of bull pen coach Jeff Torborg, who has worked with him and keeps working with him. LaRoche has been outstanding since the middle of May."

3 More Qualify For Amateur Crown

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Dennie Spencer of Sylvania, Ohio; Tom Kelly of Fort Wayne, Ind., and Judd Silverman of Toledo qualified on the Inverness Country Club course Tuesday for the U.S. Amateur Golf Championship.

Spencer toured the par-71, 6,700-yard layout in 74-73—147. Kelly carded a 74-74—148.

Silverman finished regulation play with a 74-75—149 and deadlocked with John Cline of Ormand Beach, Fla. Silverman won a playoff with a birdie three on the second hole. Cline will be the alternate.

A field of 36 participated in the qualifying rounds.

Top Seeds All Win In Buckeye Tennis

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — All of the top seeds in the $50,000 Buckeye Tennis Championships notched opening round victories Tuesday, but fifthseeded Tom Gorman got a scare from a local hero.

Gorman had all he could handle in defeating Ohio State University junior Francis Gonzalez, the defending Big 10 singles champion, 3-6, 6-1, 7-6.

Rest Rooms Mishap Brings Lawsuit

BOISE, Idaho (AP) — A woman has filed suit for $102,592, claiming she was trapped in a rest room stall.

Betty A. Power and her husband Kent said she suffered serious injuries Aug. 10, 1973, trying to get out of the stall in a ladies room of the Simplot Building.

She said her injuries were the result of negligence and carelessness in maintaining the rest room.

Mental Health Shifts Studied

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Employee shifts between institutions and divisions may allow the Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation to absorb budget cuts without laying off employees, the department's director said today.

Dr. Timothy B. Moritz said that the department may be able to take advantage of a budget which cuts mental health funds but appropriates new money for mental retardation.

Hoosier Doubts Corn Forecast

WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP) — The Agriculture Department's forecast of 5.85 billion bushels of corn, including 560 million from Indiana, is too high, says John F. Marten, Purdue University agricultural economist.

Basing his opinion on reasonable August rainfall in the dry areas west of the Mississippi River, Marten said, "We'll produce a record crop, but I would judge it will be well below the forecasted 5.85 billion bushel amount."

CORN IS A POPULAR VEGETABLE

Americans grow and eat more corn than anyone else in the world. Corn is one of our most popular vegetables. The earliest American settlers were introduced to corn by the Indians. It was such an important food for the Indians that it often appeared in their religious ceremonies. Fresh sweet corn is currently available in our supermarkets. When buying corn look for fresh green husks with dry brown silk. Avoid cobs with kernels that are tiny or very large. Kernels should be large enough in growth to eliminate any space between them. Corn should be used as soon as possible after it is bought. If it must be stored for one or two days, wrap it in damp paper towels and place in the coldest part of the refrigerator. Corn must be prepared in several different ways. For boiled corn, remove outer husks and corn silk. Wash corn and place in enough boiling water to cover it. Do not salt the water. This will make the corn tough. After the water reaches the boiling point again, cover and cook three to five minutes. Do not overcook. Corn becomes tougher the longer it cooks. To roast corn, pull back the outer husks and remove silk. Smooth the husks back into place and tie with cord. Place in a shallow baking dish and roast for 30 minutes in the oven at 375 degrees F. On the grill, roast over a hot fire for 10 to 12 minutes. Corn can also be roasted in aluminum foil. Remove husks and silk. For each ear of corn fry a strip of bacon until cooked but not crisp. Butter corn, wrap a strip of bacon in a spiral around each ear. Wrap in foil and roast for 30 minutes in the oven at 375 degrees F.

CORN IS A POPULAR VEGETABLE

Americans grow and eat more corn than anyone else in the world. Corn is one of our most popular vegetables. The earliest American settlers were introduced to corn by the Indians. It was such an important food for the Indians that it often appeared in their religious ceremonies. Fresh sweet corn is currently available in our supermarkets. When buying corn look for fresh green husks with dry brown silk. Avoid cobs with kernels that are tiny or very large. Kernels should be large enough in growth to eliminate any space between them. Corn should be used as soon as possible after it is bought. If it must be stored for one or two days, wrap it in damp paper towels and place in the coldest part of the refrigerator. Corn must be prepared in several different ways. For boiled corn, remove outer husks and corn silk. Wash corn and place in enough boiling water to cover it. Do not salt the water. This will make the corn tough. After the water reaches the boiling point again, cover and cook three to five minutes. Do not overcook. Corn becomes tougher the longer it cooks. To roast corn, pull back the outer husks and remove silk. Smooth the husks back into place and tie with cord. Place in a shallow baking dish and roast for 30 minutes in the oven at 375 degrees F. On the grill, roast over a hot fire for 10 to 12 minutes. Corn can also be roasted in aluminum foil. Remove husks and silk. For each ear of corn fry a strip of bacon until cooked but not crisp. Butter corn, wrap a strip of bacon in a spiral around each ear. Wrap in foil and roast for 30 minutes in the oven at 375 degrees F.

COOKING ON ALL BURNERS—The grills were full of steaks as the hungry diners waited in line at the annual Kiwanis Family Night picnic at Ted Lewis Park Monday. Bert Bennett, Charlie Collett, Doyle Painter and others prepared steaks, hamburgers, baked potatoes and salads for members and their families and friends. Volleyball and slow ball were enjoyed by all and helped work off the calories.

Urge Orientation For Kindergarten

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Parents should start familiarizing their preschool children with what awaits them in September in order to avoid a tearful scene in front of the kindergarten door.

That's the recommendation of local teachers and educators who believe that a little preparation can alleviate a lot of problems and even give a child a healthy outlook toward education in later life.

Before school begins, parents should take their child to the school building to ease his sense of isolation caused by the size and unfamiliar surroundings of a building, according to Betsy Hall, an elementary school teacher.

"It also helps to point out some landmarks between home and school," Mrs. Hall said. "That gives a child a sense of where he is in relation to home."

Parents should also include in their comments some reference to the time period that the child will be spending in school.

"The time element bothers some children," Mrs. Hall continued. "They don't know how long they will be in school. So parents can say something like: 'This time next week, you'll be in kindergarten and when you get home, we'll eat lunch.'"

Michael Landwehr, coordinator of psychological services for the Cincinnati school system, said a parent can ease the transition by forecasting what is likely to happen at school.

"A kid may be uptight about his shoe coming untied. All a parent needs to do is explain that 'I'm certain that the teacher will tie it if you ask her.'"

A child who had his mother's attention any time he sought it often is unable to understand why a teacher does not give him the same response, according to Virginia Wiebe, also an elementary school teacher.

"Parents should talk with their child about such things as taking turns with other children," Mrs. Wiebe said. "They should explain that a teacher has a lot of other boys and girls in a classroom and can't always listen to what the child has to say."

Landwehr also suggested that parents ask their child about his worries as the first day of school approaches.

"They should talk with him about what he can handle," he said. "Does he want someone to wait in a car until he gets into the building? Or does he want someone to take him to the school door or even to the classroom?"

Mead Hit By Strike At Chillicothe

CHILLICOTHE, Ohio (AP) — Nearly 2,000 workers were on strike Tuesday at two Mead Corp. plants here, objecting to possible cuts in their pensions.

Plant Manager Booker Bunch said workers left their jobs at midnight Monday. The company plans to revise the pension plan because of its cost, he said.

Locals 988 and 731 of the United Paperworkers International Union had voted for the strike prior to the expiration of their old contract Aug. 1 but delayed it because of a 10-day notification clause in the old contract.

Joseph Tonelli, the union president, said the proposed change in the pension plan would cost a retired worker with 35 years service $200 a month. The plan is also the cause of a strike by Mead workers in Escanaba, Mich.

Mead said increased wages and operating costs have driven the cost of pensions upward in the last few years to the point a retired worker with social security and a working spouse would be making more off the job than on.

"All we want," said Tonelli, "is what we've negotiated for in contracts over the last 20 years."

Farm Population Still Declining

WASHINGTON (AP) — Roughly 16 to 20 per cent of the U.S. farm population disappeared today.

As "persons residing on farms," that is. And only as far as census statisticians are concerned.

An Agriculture Department spokesman said Tuesday that USDA and the Bureau of the Census have agreed, as long expected and unsuccessfully broached two years ago, to now define as a farm only farms that produce $1,000 or more a year in cash sales.

Officials said that decision chops off about one-half of one per cent of the dollars in cash receipts that make up U.S. farm income — but will significantly increase on paper the average farm income.

Up to 565,600 "old" farmers could be cut formally from the census rolls when the statisticians complete their work on the 1974 U.S. agricultural survey and publish the results this fall, under both old and new definitions.

Current statistics are broken down in public only to the level of sales of less than $2,500 a year, although one official at USDA acknowledged the under-$1,000 figures have been collected and analyzed.

"The purpose of the change is to better describe farming as it exists today," an internal background memorandum on the new definition said.

"There have been rapid changes in the farming industry that could not be adequately described under the old definition . . . Most important of these changes have been increasing concentration of production on larger farming units, greatly increased importance of nonfarming jobs and income for many farm families, increased specialization on farms and increased involvement in agriculture by firms or companies which have chosen to integrate or diversify into farming," the memo said.

The background paper added that the definition change will not adversely affect the "very small producers," whose crops still will be counted by production statisticians. "They will not lose eligibility in federal programs or be adversely affected in any other way."

The available statistics show that the number of farms with less than $2,500 in annual sales dropped from 1.85 million in 1960 to 707,000 last year and their sales fell from 5.8 per cent of the U.S. total to 0.9 per cent. They comprised 46.6 per cent of the total farms 15 years ago and 25 per cent last year.

By contrast farms with $100,000 in annual sales represented 0.6 per cent of the total number in 1960 and 17.3 per cent of the cash receipts.

By last year, those large farms comprised 4.1 per cent of the farm population and took in 47.4 per cent of the cash.

On Sept. 17, 1923, fire destroyed more than 600 buildings in Berkeley, Calif., at an estimated loss of $12.5 million.

Man Loves Corvairs; Has 20

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP)— There is a self-made traffic jam around the gas station owned by Fred Fahrenholz. Like a automotive pied piper, he has 14 Corvairs constantly parked outside his station—and he owns them all.

That's not all. He's got six more of the compact cars outside of his home, but his wife Ellen now says that's enough for now.

"She says this is like an elephants' graveyard—only the Corvairs come here to die," laughed Fahrenholz.

Fahrenholz recalls his love affair began two years ago with the car which has not been in production since 1969.

"I didn't think too much of it until I needed a service car," he said. "I put the word out, and goodnight, this little lady from Farmville answers it and I bought her Corvair."

"She said she just couldn't keep it running and sure enough every time we took it out, we'd have to tow the thing back in, but I remember the things that would go wrong and how we fixed them."

"And if you attend to those little things, you keep the car running."

With his wife having declared a moratorium on any more Corvairs, Fahrenholz admits he's going to have to content himself with the cars he's got for awhile.

"It's a good, sturdy little car, dependable and easy to work on," he concluded.

"You got to watch them though. They multiply like rabbits."

Some Farmers Disappointed At Curbing Of Grain Sales

TROY, Ohio (AP) — U.S. Agriculture Secretary Earl L. Butz's desire to refrain from further grain sales to the Soviet Union, at least for a while, disappoints some Miami Valley farmers.

John Knoop, a farmer in Brown Township in Darke County, said,

POMONA GRANGE

Scioto Valley served as Host for the Summer Session of Pomona Grange 26 held Aug. 8 at the Grange Building with Saltcreek Valley having the most members present. Hoyt Timmons served as presiding master for Frank Lands Sr. who was in England. Virginia Mann was pianist for all musical inclusions.

For Grange Youth, Frank Lands, Jr. reported on recent plans for upcoming projects. An installation team is being readied for action. Joan Dawson gave details of treasury growth due to the chance-donation project. By drawing the electric knife went to Wayne Cryder and the Crock Pot to Marie Bennett.

John Dowler and Harold Bumgarner gave reports of Pomona's successful cooperation with Food Service during County Fair.

Barbara Bolender, Youth Grange representative of County Fair Board, expressed appreciation for the opportunity which had provided many benefits.

For the Ohio Governor's Traffic Safety Committee Bonnie Bolender, who is serving as Secretary for this state group, told of the recent Wisconsin conference and stated this special group was still going strong.

The obligation of Pomona was given to five members of Scioto Subordinate Grange: Donna Jean Beavers, Emajean Doozey, Paul E. Gochenour, Norma Gochenour, and Jackie Gochenour.

Carl Bennett, Legislative Chairman, reminded that several local citizens were being registered as candidates for school responsibilities and that voters should be thinking of how their money is being spent for education. He added that township trustees should do the job they are elected to do. Special tribute was given Representative William Harsha who is interested in true share of benefit for labor and farmer.

Contributions were approved for American Heart Association and for expenses for the National Grange session to be held at Columbus in November.

For the Pickaway County Deputies an announcement was made of the Camp Out project arranged for Labor Day Week-end at Friendly Hills.

Special recognition was given Barbara Bolender who was selected County Fair Queen to reign until the 1976 Fair; and winners of Grange Booth exhibits—Scioto-first place, Saltcreek-second place, and Mt. Pleasant-third.

Diana Lands was in charge of the program for which Subordinate Lecturers were responsible. The film by White Motor Corporation for Farm Equipment featured Congressman Jerry Litton who told the story of agriculture problems and pleasures.

During the concluding social hour refreshments were served by members of Scioto Valley Grange.

"Farmers are just getting into the position where they can market their stuff at an advantage."

"It's the only way agriculture can come close to labor" in getting a fair return for its skills, claimed Knoop. "The farmer has to have the foreign market."

Butz estimated earlier this week that it would take five months to unload at Russian ports the 9.8 million metric tons of U.S. grain already bought. He said he feels consumer food prices will not be appreciably affected by the grain sales.

Robert J. Linkhorn, a spokesman for the grain-buying division of Early and Daniels Co., said the Russian wheat deal "hasn't affected receipts of grain really yet."

Knoop said some farmers are withholding their grain from the market.

About 60 per cent of the area farmers have a storage facility. "They don't have to dump it (on the market) like they used to," one farmer said.

Wheat is the only crop going to market at present, said John Vermilya, Darke County agricultural extension agent. "Farmers are well aware a lot of their crop is going to be exported. They're going to hold on to wheat or grain in hopes the price will go up," Vermilya said.

"They may hold onto it until the end of the year and sell it as futures for the next year. They don't want two crop incomes in the same year."

Xenia Paper Returns To Afternoons

XENIA, Ohio (AP) — The Daily Gazette will return to afternoon publication Aug. 18. The newspaper was forced to publish morning editions after a tornado devastated the town in April 1974 and school age newspaper carriers were unavailable in the afternoon.

The newspaper will make the change one week shy of a year of morning editions.

The newspaper reversed its publication schedule when its delivery carriers became unavailable. The carriers were primarily junior high school students who, as a result of the destruction of schools, were now in class between noon and 6 p.m.

The new carriers will be elementary and high school age. "This aspect has been most difficult because we had to replace many junior high young people who had been so loyal to us in the emergency and we will keep close tabs on them for the future as they pass into high school schedules and become available to us again," said Jack Jordan, editor and general manager.

"Literally thousands of people have been most patient with us in the last year."

"The communities outside the Xenia school district which are part of our readership accepted the publication time change with general graciousness. And the majority of readers was touched at one time or another by our trials created by the wholesale loss of carriers and erratic delivery times," Jordan said.

The newspaper will publish Monday through Saturday with a 2 p.m. press run.

Ohioan Wealthy With $27 In Cash

WAUKEE, Iowa (AP) — As Benn Blinn sees it: "If a man has everything he wants and $2 left over, he is a wealthy man."

"I have $27 in my pocket." If there is room for free spirits in the late 1970s, Blinn apparently is one of them.

Attired in a lavender shirt with a peace dove embroidered across the chest, faded denim trousers with red and white polka dot patches on each thigh, Blinn, 76, visited friends recently in this community near Des Moines.

The "$27 in my pocket" notwithstanding, Blinn's friends say he is a wealthy man who made his fortune in outdoor advertising.

Where does he live?

"Columbus, Ohio. That is where I am stationed. I live on a 30-acre island surrounded by a sea of humanity. But I'm usually on the move."

He arrived here last week from a three-week safari in Africa where he went "to see all the animals."

Blinn explains that he is motivated

Television Programs Scheduled By OSU

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Commission on Aging has signed a contract with Ohio State University for a second season of television programs entitled "On Aging."

Martin Janis, commission executive director, said the 26 weekly programs would be carried on 11 educational television stations throughout the state beginning Oct. 6.

by everything he sees, hears and reads.

"I'll hear something or read something and I'll want to see it with my own eyes." He said he goes "wherever the wind takes me."

The purpose of the Iowa visit was to view the National Hot Air Balloon Races at Indianola. He arrived too late for the aerial show.

But Blinn is no stranger to non-motorized flight.

He said that in 1963 he launched 17 kites secured by 2,000 feet of line each to buckets. The kites traveled the Atlantic Ocean from Nantucket, R.I., bound for England.

He said he was notified six months later that one of them reached the Bristol coast of England.

Although Blinn missed the balloon races, he used the visit to spend time with friends, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Ericson of near Wauke. Dr. Ericson is a Des Moines eye, ear, nose and throat specialist.

The Ericsons and Blinn became friends when the couple rented one of five houses on his 30-acre estate in the late 1960s while the physician completed residency training at the University of Ohio.

The estate is called "Fancyburg" by Blinn—a place surrounded by "snooty people."

Blinn's advertising service once had billboards in Ohio, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois and Michigan.

"When the government started telling you who you could hire and who you couldn't, we sucked ourselves in and were just in Ohio," Blinn recalls.

Pioneer Group Schedules Display

DOVER, Ohio (AP) — The Tuscarawas Valley Pioneer Association Inc. will hold its 11th annual display of antique power equipment Aug. 15-17 at the Tuscarawas County Fairgrounds.

Old steam and gas engines will be seen at work threshing wheat, milling feed, shingle milling, saw milling and grinding corn meal.

John Dowler and Harold Bumgarner gave reports of Pomona's successful cooperation with Food Service during County Fair.

Barbara Bolender, Youth Grange representative of County Fair Board, expressed appreciation for the opportunity which had provided many benefits.

For the Ohio Governor's Traffic Safety Committee Bonnie Bolender, who is serving as Secretary for this state group, told of the recent Wisconsin conference and stated this special group was still going strong.

The obligation of Pomona was given to five members of Scioto Subordinate Grange: Donna Jean Beavers, Emajean Dosey, Paul E. Gochenour, Norma Gochenour, and Jackie Gochenour.

Carl Bennett, Legislative Chairman, reminded that several local citizens were being registered as candidates for school responsibilities and that voters should be thinking of how their money is being spent for education. He added that township trustees should do the job they are elected to do. Special tribute was given Representative William Harsha who is interested in true share of benefit for labor and farmer.

Contributions were approved for American Heart Association and for expenses for the National Grange session to be held at Columbus in November.

For the Pickaway County Deputies an announcement was made of the Camp Out project arranged for Labor Day Week-end at Friendly Hills.

Special recognition was given Barbara Bolender who was selected County Fair Queen to reign until the 1976 Fair; and winners of Grange Booth exhibits—Scioto-first place, Saltcreek-second place, and Mt. Pleasant-third.

Diana Lands was in charge of the program for which Subordinate Lecturers were responsible. The film by White Motor Corporation for Farm Equipment featured Congressman Jerry Litton who told the story of agriculture problems and pleasures.

During the concluding social hour refreshments were served by members of Scioto Valley Grange.

"Farmers are just getting into the position where they can market their stuff at an advantage."

"It's the only way agriculture can come close to labor" in getting a fair return for its skills, claimed Knoop. "The farmer has to have the foreign market."

Butz estimated earlier this week that it would take five months to unload at Russian ports the 9.8 million metric tons of U.S. grain already bought. He said he feels consumer food prices will not be appreciably affected by the grain sales.

Robert J. Linkhorn, a spokesman for the grain-buying division of Early and Daniels Co., said the Russian wheat deal "hasn't affected receipts of grain really yet."

Knoop said some farmers are withholding their grain from the market.

About 60 per cent of the area farmers have a storage facility. "They don't have to dump it (on the market) like they used to," one farmer said.

Wheat is the only crop going to market at present, said John Vermilya, Darke County agricultural extension agent. "Farmers are well aware a lot of their crop is going to be exported. They're going to hold on to wheat or grain in hopes the price will go up," Vermilya said.

"They may hold onto it until the end of the year and sell it as futures for the next year. They don't want two crop incomes in the same year."

Xenia Paper Returns To Afternoons

XENIA, Ohio (AP) — The Daily Gazette will return to afternoon publication Aug. 18. The newspaper was forced to publish morning editions after a tornado devastated the town in April 1974 and school age newspaper carriers were unavailable in the afternoon.

The newspaper will make the change one week shy of a year of morning editions.

The newspaper reversed its publication schedule when its delivery carriers became unavailable. The carriers were primarily junior high school students who, as a result of the destruction of schools, were now in class between noon and 6 p.m.

The new carriers will be elementary and high school age. "This aspect has been most difficult because we had to replace many junior high young people who had been so loyal to us in the emergency and we will keep close tabs on them for the future as they pass into high school schedules and become available to us again," said Jack Jordan, editor and general manager.

"Literally thousands of people have been most patient with us in the last year."

"The communities outside the Xenia school district which are part of our readership accepted the publication time change with general graciousness. And the majority of readers was touched at one time or another by our trials created by the wholesale loss of carriers and erratic delivery times," Jordan said.

The newspaper will publish Monday through Saturday with a 2 p.m. press run.

Ohioan Wealthy With $27 In Cash

WAUKEE, Iowa (AP) — As Benn Blinn sees it: "If a man has everything he wants and $2 left over, he is a wealthy man."

"I have $27 in my pocket."

If there is room for free spirits in the late 1970s, Blinn apparently is one of them.

Attired in a lavender shirt with a peace dove embroidered across the chest, faded denim trousers with red and white polka dot patches on each thigh, Blinn, 76, visited friends recently in this community near Des Moines.

The "$27 in my pocket" notwithstanding, Blinn's friends say he is a wealthy man who made his fortune in outdoor advertising.

Where does he live?

"Columbus, Ohio. That is where I am stationed. I live on a 30-acre island surrounded by a sea of humanity. But I'm usually on the move."

He arrived here last week from a three-week safari in Africa where he went "to see all the animals."

Blinn explains that he is motivated

by everything he sees, hears and reads.

"I'll hear something or read something and I'll want to see it with my own eyes." He said he goes "wherever the wind takes me."

The purpose of the Iowa visit was to view the National Hot Air Balloon Races at Indianola. He arrived too late for the aerial show.

But Blinn is no stranger to non-motorized flight.

He said that in 1963 he launched 17 kites secured by 2,000 feet of line each to buckets. The kites traveled the Atlantic Ocean from Nantucket, R.I., bound for England.

He said he was notified six months later that one of them reached the Bristol coast of England.

Although Blinn missed the balloon races, he used the visit to spend time with friends, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Ericson of near Waukeke. Dr. Ericson is a Des Moines eye, ear, nose and throat specialist.

The Ericsons and Blinn became friends when the couple rented one of five houses on his 30-acre estate in the late 1960s while the physician completed residency training at the University of Ohio.

The estate is called "Fancyburg" by Blinn — a place surrounded by "snooty people."

Blinn's advertising service once had billboards in Ohio, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois and Michigan.

"When the government started telling you who you could hire and who you couldn't, we sucked ourselves in and were just in Ohio," Blinn recalls.

Pioneer Group Schedules Display

DOVER, Ohio (AP) — The Tuscarawas Valley Pioneer Association Inc. will hold its 11th annual display of antique power equipment Aug. 15-17 at the Tuscarawas County Fairgrounds.

Old steam and gas engines will be seen at work threshing wheat, milling feed, shingle milling, saw milling and grinding corn meal.

Cesar Romero Set For Next Dinner Theatre Production

Cesar Romero, one of Hollywood's most debonair personalities, will star in the next production at the Country Dinner Playhouse near Reynoldsburg. Romero will begin his stay at the CDP next Tuesday in the moral comedy "My Three Angels." The play will run through Sept. 28.

CESAR ROMERO

The man who has thrilled theatre, television and movie audiences for several years will play a good-natured storekeeper named Felix Ducotel in the delightful farce. The three angels are convicts from the penal institution near Ducotel's store who have come to repair the roof but get involved when the storekeeper has troubles with a

Accident Still Under Investigation

A one-car accident which occurred at 7:39 a.m. Tuesday is still under investigation by State Highway Patrolman A. R. Svetek.

Ptl. Svetek dispatched to the scene on Route 316 just west of Route 104 and found three persons injured.

According to his report, Lewis Hawk, Route 1, Williamsport, had been traveling eastbound on Route 316 at a high rate of speed. He had come to the sharp curve in the road just before the Route 104 junction and was unable to negotiate it.

Svetek said the car was literally wrapped around a light pole.

Hawk and two juvenile passengers, Tommy Bingmer and his sister Rosemary, were taken to Mercy Hospital by the Scioto Township Emergency Squad.

Cesar Romero, one of Hollywood's most debonair personalities, will star in the next production at the Country Dinner Playhouse near Reynoldsburg. Romero will begin his stay at the CDP next Tuesday in the moral comedy "My Three Angels." The play will run through Sept. 28.

CESAR ROMERO

The man who has thrilled theatre, television and movie audiences for several years will play a good-natured storekeeper named Felix Ducotel in the delightful farce. The three angels are convicts from the penal institution near Ducotel's store who have come to repair the roof but get involved when the storekeeper has troubles with a

Accident Still Under Investigation

A one-car accident which occurred at 7:39 a.m. Tuesday is still under investigation by State Highway Patrolman A. R. Svetek.

Ptl. Svetek dispatched to the scene on Route 316 just west of Route 104 and found three persons injured.

According to his report, Lewis Hawk, Route 1, Williamsport, had been traveling eastbound on Route 316 at a high rate of speed. He had come to the sharp curve in the road just before the Route 104 junction and was unable to negotiate it.

Svetek said the car was literally wrapped around a light pole.

Hawk and two juvenile passengers, Tommy Bingmer and his sister Rosemary, were taken to Mercy Hospital by the Scioto Township Emergency Squad.

book-auditing relative.

Last month when Don Mutnick, manager of the Country Dinner Playhouse, announced the coming Romero show, plenty of ooh's and ah's arose from the audience. Romero is one of the most noted celebrities to visit the dinner theatre.

Reservations can be made by calling the Playhouse at 864-1760 and guests are reminded that each and every show is preceded by a luscious buffet style banquet.

Pork Producers Tour Scheduled

Southwest Ohio pork producers, on September 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 are going to have the opportunity to tour five states in the Corn Belt, and not only see crop conditions but will have a chance to attend the Austin Barrow Show in Austin, Minnesota.

In addition, other stops are: Purdue swine facilities, Lafayette, Indiana; Leo Bernhard Farm, Elwood, Illinois — produces 10,000 head of hogs per year and produces all his own corn; Hormel Packing Plant; Hormel Research Farm, with emphasis on their farm buildings; Board of Trade; Mercantile Exchange, Chicago.

If interested, contact Pickaway County Extension Agent George Hamrick for complete details. Reservation deadline: Noon August 19th. This bus tour is on a "first come, first served" basis.

Farmers Don't Dig Metric

RACINE, Wis. (AP) — The metric system apparently rates low with farmers, if one is to judge from a recent poll conducted by Wisconsin Agriculturalist, a farm magazine.

Farmers were asked: "Since most countries of the world now use the metric system, it has been suggested that we adopt it." Only 17 per cent said we should adopt it. Sixty-three per cent were against it and 20 per cent were undecided.

An alloy is a solid solution of two or more metals.

Views On Television

NEW YORK (AP) — Okay, it's back to square one for British TV personality David Frost on which U.S. broadcasters will buy the film interviews he'll be doing with former president Nixon.

There was a published report this week that ABC News, which rejected a proposal to buy TV rights to Nixon's memoirs and interview him, now was believed negotiating with Frost for U.S. rights to his project.

Balderdash, said ABC News chief Bill Sheehan late Monday night. "We're not making a deal with Frost and we're not trying to," he said, adding he'd told Frost of ABC's policy of "not paying for news."

But for a while it looked like something was cooking when an ABC corporate spokesman, noting that Sheehan was on vacation and momentarily out of contact, said ABC couldn't confirm or deny the report.

He said Sheehan — who was taking an all-day examination for an instrument flying rating — was the only one in the entire American Broadcasting Company who could comment on the published report.

It seems a strange way to run a network, but Sheehan eventually was contacted, denied the report, and that was that.

So where does this leave Frost in American broadcasting?

Well, two TV outlets — public TV's National Public Affairs Center for Television and Television News, Inc., a commercial TV news service — say they may negotiate for Frost's interviews of Nixon.

CBS, stung by "checkbook journalism" charges after paying ex-Nixon aide H.R. Haldeman for interviews, rejected an offer made before the Frost deal to buy TV rights to Nixon's memoirs and interview him.

It cited a policy against buying "hard news" exclusives. But it might deal with Frost if, among other things, the hard news softens.

It works this way: Frost's interviews won't be released until after the November elections in 1976. But CBS could deal for the films if Nixon opens himself to thorough questioning by newsmen before the films air.

Under those conditions, CBS News chief Richard S. Salant says he might negotiate if Nixon earlier has "said practically everything he has to say on Watergate under questioning — which he's never done, not ever before a congressional committee."

"But if by the time of broadcast that's behind him and he's done it (talked with newsmen), then I suppose there's been a sufficient lapse of time and disclosure of facts to include it as legitimate among memoirs."

By that he meant he could negotiate for the films as presidential memoirs. But he says it also "depends on what they're talking about. And I want to know who's doing it and under what ground rules."

The United States granted the Philippines independence, July 4, 1946.

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

FOR THURSDAY

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 20): Start the day with verve and at a steady pace. Investigate the validity of new offerings. Caution in financial matters advised.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 to May 21): You will now be in competition with top-flight people and their activities. You can hold your own, advance some. Good ideas and eloquent speech will help.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21): You may have an unusual opportunity to advance your interests immediately — one which could have an important bearing on your future as well. Be ready to accept.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23): This is not the time for dwelling on old errors, except to recognize that they must not be repeated. On with your present program — especially if it's been built on a solid basis.

LEO (July 24 to Aug. 23): Do not lower your dignity by using strong-arm or other forceful measures to achieve success. You will accomplish more through your tact and graciousness.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23): New offerings may attract you, but do not give up old projects of value. In those fields in which you are trained and for which you have a liking you may well speed ahead now.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23): The Libran, connoisseur of the truly good things in life, should have a field day. Especially favored: artists, writers, entertainers, dealers in fine arts.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 23):

22): Better than average influences. Do not rest on your laurels — the past is past. This day is for building for the future.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 to Dec. 21): The results of your efforts will be determined by what use you make of talents and opportunities. Stretch out; delve into areas that give promise of delivering more.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): Saturn auspicious. Activities should be handled evenly so as not to lap over too much in any direction. Start with a tempo you can keep — and do!

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): Weigh fitness and the validity of proposed action carefully. Keep your eye on the horizon as you steer ahead.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): Better-than-average opportunities for you to leap ahead and, if one matter seems sluggish, don't think they all are! Your outlook very important.

YOU BORN TODAY are endowed with a fine intellect, great dignity and a truly regal personality. Properly educated and living on the higher plane, you would be well suited to a position of authority and leadership. You make canny judgments through a composite of knowledge and instinct; are original and foresighted in your thinking. You have excellent business acumen and are usually a smart speculator. In fact, your gift for handling finances should make you materially successful, no matter what career you choose. Fields in which you could shine: music, writing, the law, science or salesmanship. Birthdate of: John Galsworthy and Sir Walter Besant, Eng. authors.

Farmers Don't Dig Metric

RACINE, Wis. (AP) — The metric system apparently rates low with farmers, if one is to judge from a recent poll conducted by Wisconsin Agriculturalist, a farm magazine.

Farmers were asked: "Since most countries of the world now use the metric system, it has been suggested that we adopt it." Only 17 per cent said we should adopt it. Sixty-three per cent were against it and 20 per cent were undecided.

An alloy is a solid solution of two or more metals.

Mt. Of Praise Camp Meeting

PAT DUNCAN

REV. THOMAS H. HERMIZ

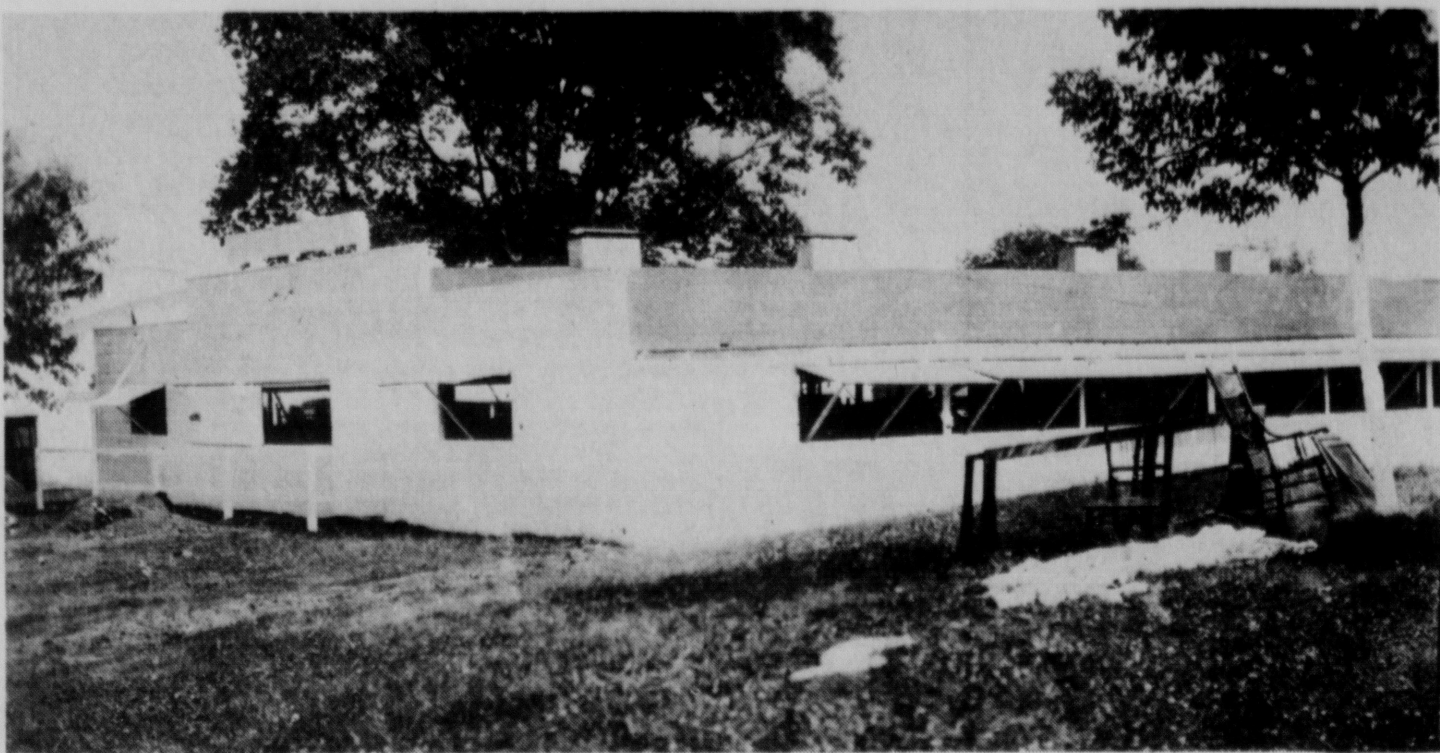

REV. G. STUART McWHIRTER

REV. N. G. WILSON

Some of the nation's greatest evangelists have preached at the Circleville Camp. Dr. T. M. Anderson, a Methodist evangelist from Wilmore,

ORIGINAL TABERNACLE—This is a picture of the original tabernacle built in 1918 on the Circleville Campgrounds. The building has since been converted into a dining hall.

Church of Christ in Christian Union leaders built a new tabernacle, which is the present structure, in 1928 measuring 100-feet by 144-feet and seating capacity for 3400 people.

Kentucky, has been the most outstanding evangelist at the camp serving 21 times as an evangelist.

Other great evangelists include the Revs. John and Bona Fleming, Rev. Paul Rees, Rev. R. G. Flexon, Dr. John R. Church, Rev. James DeWeerd, Rev. Jesse Whitecotton, Dr. C. I. Armstrong, Rev. Z. T. Johnson, Dr. John L. Brasher, Dr. H. M. Couchenour, Rev. J. Percy Trueblood, C. W. Ruth, Dr. J. Sutherland Logan, Dr. Lawrence Hicks, Rev. Morton Dorsey, Rev. Donovan Humble and many others.

These workers come from denominations including the Church of the Nazarene, Pilgrim Holiness, Wesleyan Methodist (Wesleyan), Free Methodist, Friends (Quaker), and Methodist.

The Circleville camp has survived the low or so-called death years for church-affiliated campmeetings and has maintained its style of gospel preaching.

The 1975 event again promises to be typical of the Mt. Praise camp meeting featuring some of the best known holiness preachers in America.

The Rev. G. Stuart McWhirter, an international evangelist, has conducted evangelistic campaigns and campmeetings through the United States. He and his wife have traveled extensively visiting mission fields in Europe, the Middle East and Africa.

The Rev. Thomas H. Hermiz D. D., a minister in the Churches of Christ in Christian Union, is a graduate of Circleville Bible College. The former pastor of the Englewood and Lancaster, Ohio churches, he has been the Executive Director of the Christian Holiness Association since 1972.

The Rev. N. G. Wilson is a United Wesleyan College graduate with a Bachelor in Religious Education and Winona Lake School of Theology graduate with a Masters.

He has been in the pastorate for 17 years and is presently pastoring the Owosso, Michigan Wesleyan Church.

Wilson was appointed by the General Board of the Wesleyan Church as the speaker for the new international radio broadcast of that denomination, called The Wesleyan Hour.

Working as the song evangelist is Pat Duncan from Chillicothe. A member of the Church of the Nazarene, Duncan was formerly associated with the Golden Keys Quartet before entering the music ministry fulltime.

Children's coordinator is Barbara Parrish. A 1974 graduate of Circleville Bible College, Miss Parrish has worked in many of the church camp programs.

The Rev. Don Crooks, Dean of Men at Circleville Bible College, is in charge of Youth Activities.

The meetings begin 7:30 p.m. Friday with a Youth Rally featuring Rev. Thomas H. Hermiz with music provided by the Major Young Trio.

Services will continue daily 10:30 a.m., 2:30 and 7:30 p.m. A special combined ordination service for the Mideast, Midwest and South Central Districts will be held 10:30 a.m. Sunday, Aug. 17.

The Rev. Donovan Humble, General Superintendent of the Churches of Christ in Christian Union, will be the featured speaker for the Aug. 23, 2:20 p.m. Missionary Service.

For information concerning the camp, call the Church Headquarters at 474-8856.

SUMMER JOB—These two young boys are two of 50 girls and boys employed for three weeks through a federally funded program administered by Pickaway County Community Action. PICCA received $13,115 to use in the Summer Program For Economically Disadvantaged Youth. They are picking up trash along county roads. Pickaway County Commissioners have provided the trash bags.

Amanda-Clearcreek Board Prepares For Opening Of School

Final resolutions regarding the opening of school were passed by the Amanda-Clearcreek Board of Education in regular session Monday night.

The board hired the following people as DPPF aides for the 1975-76 school year: June Cassill, Barbara Clellan, Evelyn Dunkle, Edith Hilyard, Joane Hinton, Marlene Hyme, Mary Kiser, Sue LeClair, Rosemary Young and Jacqueline Rhymer.

Also hired were the following substitute workers for the district: Janice Blankenship, Linda Werner, Linda Harrison, Patricia Sherman, Peggy Martin, Lillith Gardner, Carolyn Julian, Marjorie Kinser and Josephine Smith as substitute cooks; Janice V. Blankenship, Patricia Hughey, Eugene Pierce, Jeff Smith, substitute custodians; Ann Glendenning, Julia Carpenter and Stella Bathlow, substitute secretaries; Ann Glendenning, substitute study hall monitor; Jeff Smith, Joel Spires, George Wharton and Marvin Valentine substitute bus drivers. Mary Bowers was approved to be used as a substitute in any position where she is needed.

In other action, the board awarded the cafeteria bid for milk to Deeds Dairy and the bread bid to Pennington Bakery.

The resignation of Richard Smith as athletic director was accepted and the board approved the employment of Ed

Stickel as assistant junior high football coach.

Along these same lines, the board passed a resolution thanking the athletic director and the committee of coaches who helped to draw up a new coaches' salary schedule for the district.

Permission was granted to the board of elections to use the building on Sept. 15 for a poll workers clinic. Also, the board voted to ask for an advance draw from the county auditor for operating the general fund.

James Flanagan was present at the meeting with a report on the high school guidance program.

A dress code and guideline for the school district was adopted along with a program allowing for free lunches and milk for certain underprivileged children who qualify for the program.

Action was taken by the board to allow the senior citizens of the school district to eat lunches at the school cafeterias. The rate for the lunches will be the same as for teachers and non-certificated employees.

In final action during the evening, the board passed a resolution allowing the bus drivers to purchase their own radios for the school buses.

Mt. Of Praise Camp Meeting

PAT DUNCAN

REV. THOMAS H. HERMIZ

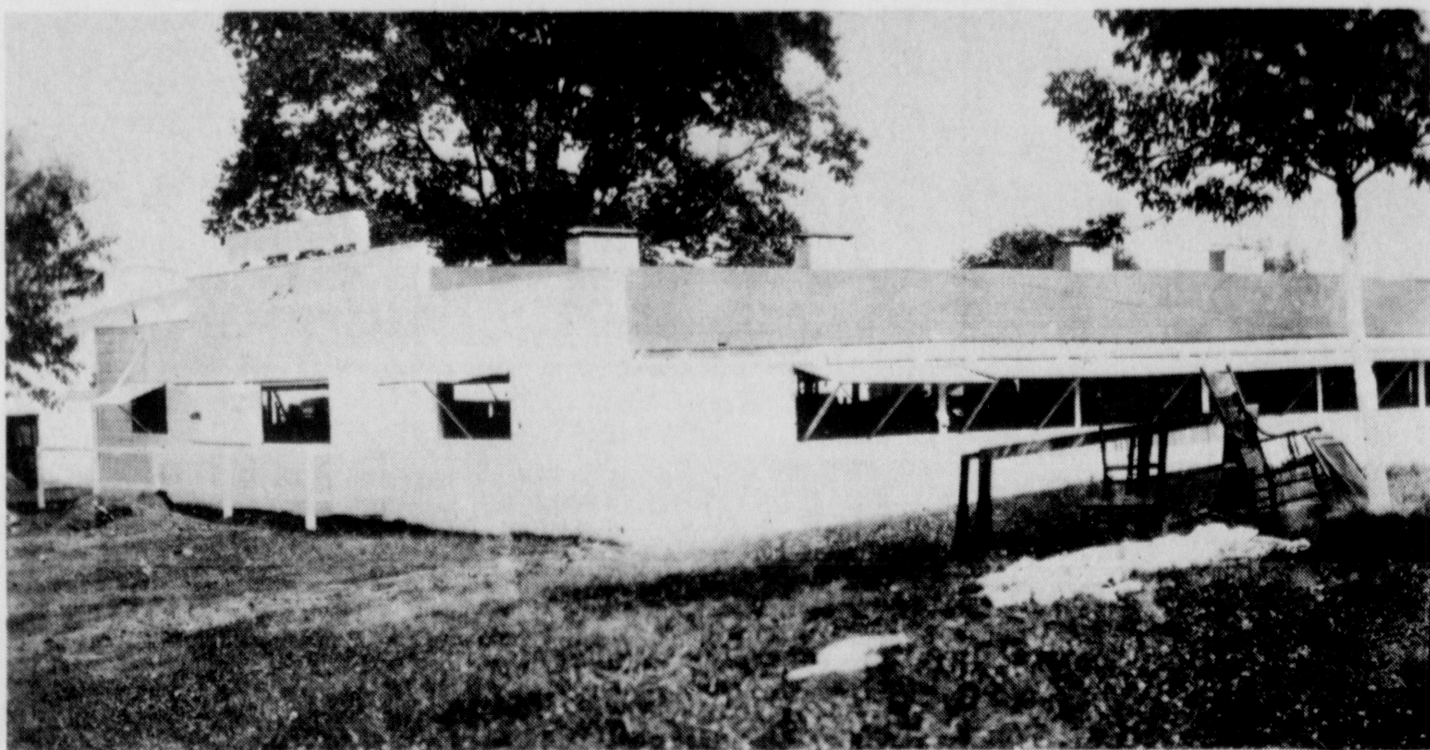

REV. G. STUART McWHIRTER

Some of the nation's greatest evangelists have preached at the Circleville Camp. Dr. T. M. Anderson, a Methodist evangelist from Wilmore,

ORIGINAL TABERNACLE—This is a picture of the original tabernacle built in 1918 on the Circleville Campgrounds. The building has since been converted into a dining hall.

Church of Christ in Christian Union leaders built a new tabernacle, which is the present structure, in 1928 measuring 100-feet by 144-feet and seating capacity for 3400 people.

Kentucky, has been the most outstanding evangelist at the camp serving 21 times as an evangelist.

Other great evangelists include the Revs. John and Bona Fleming, Rev. Paul Rees, Rev. R. G. Flexon, Dr. John R. Church, Rev. James DeWeerd, Rev. Jesse Whitecotton, Dr. C. I. Armstrong, Rev. Z. T. Johnson, Dr. John L. Brasher, Dr. H. M. Couchenhour, Rev. J. Percy Trueblood, C. W. Ruth, Dr. J. Sutherland Logan, Dr. Lawrence Hicks, Rev. Morton Dorsey, Rev. Donovan Humble and many others.

These workers come from denominations including the Church of the Nazarene, Pilgrim Holiness, Wesleyan Methodist (Wesleyan), Free Methodist, Friends (Quaker), and Methodist.

The Circleville camp has survived the low or so-called death years for church-affiliated campmeetings and has maintained its style of gospel preaching.

The 1975 event again promises to be typical of the Mt. Praise camp meeting featuring some of the best known holiness preachers in America.

The Rev. G. Stuart McWhirter, an international evangelist, has conducted evangelistic campaigns and campmeetings through the United States. He and his wife have traveled extensively visiting mission fields in Europe, the Middle East and Africa.

The Rev. Thomas H. Hermiz D. D., a minister in the Churches of Christ in Christian Union, is a graduate of Circleville Bible College. The former pastor of the Englewood and Lancaster, Ohio churches, he has been the Executive Director of the Christian Holiness Association since 1972.

The Rev. N. G. Wilson is a United Wesleyan College graduate with a Bachelor in Religious Education and Winona Lake School of Theology graduate with a Masters.

He has been in the pastorate for 17 years and is presently pastoring the Owosso, Michigan Wesleyan Church.

Wilson was appointed by the General Board of the Wesleyan Church as the speaker for the new international radio broadcast of that denomination, called The Wesleyan Hour.

Working as the song evangelist is Pat Duncan from Chillicothe. A member of the Church of the Nazarene, Duncan was formerly associated with the Golden Keys Quartet before entering the music ministry fulltime.

Children's coordinator is Barbara Parrish. A 1974 graduate of Circleville Bible College, Miss Parrish has worked in many of the church camp programs.

The Rev. Don Crooks, Dean of Men at Circleville Bible College, is in charge of Youth Activities.

The meetings begin 7:30 p.m. Friday with a Youth Rally featuring Rev. Thomas H. Hermiz with music provided by the Major Young Trio.

Services will continue daily 10:30 a.m., 2:30 and 7:30 p.m. A special combined ordination service for the Midwest, Midwest and South Central Districts will be held 10:30 a.m. Sunday, Aug. 17.

The Rev. Donovan Humble, General Superintendent of the Churches of Christ in Christian Union, will be the featured speaker for the Aug. 23, 2:20 p.m. Missionary Service.

For information concerning the camp, call the Church Headquarters at 474-8856.

SUMMER JOB—These two young boys are two of 50 girls and boys employed for three weeks through a federally funded program administered by Pickaway County Community Action. PICCA received $13,115 to use in the Summer Program For Economically Disadvantaged Youth. They are picking up trash along county roads. Pickaway County Commissioners have provided the trash bags.
